Bereavement Support Group

Experiencing loss, especially loss of a loved one, is the most difficult time in our lives. Knowing what to expect as we grieve the loss, and how to continue our journey toward healing can help us.

Our gatherings will be a time to learn, reflect and listen, with an optional time for the sharing of our stories with others who are also journeying through similar circumstances. Additional resources and other information will be available. We want to determine the present level of interest in bringing back this valuable ministry at Blessed Sacrament Parish. Please indicate if you or someone you know is interested in participating in this group by contacting Char at the parish office. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Deacon Paul at (414) 321-1611.

The Return of the Sacrament of Anointing

We will resume the Sacrament of Anointing in July. In the future, the Sacrament will be administered on the first full weekend of the month. First opportunity will be during the St. Peregrine Mass for Healing on First Friday, July 2 at 12:10 PM. The next opportunity will be on July 3 & 4 after all Masses.

The Return of ### Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction

Eucharistic

Adoration

We will once again offer Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction on First Fridays of the month between morning Mass and our St. Peregrine Mass.

Beginning July 2, Adoration will start after the 8:15 AM Mass and go through 11:45 AM.

Benediction will begin at 11:45 AM.

We are asking for anyone interested in Adoration to please sign up for a time slot or two to ensure someone can be with the Holy Eucharist at all times. The sign up sheet will be in the back of church on a stand across from the Usher's room.

What Makes A Dad

*God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of the night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of a family need.
Then God combined these qualities.
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it...Dad -Author Unknown*

A Reflection from Deacon Matthew Ferch

This week, on June 24, we celebrate the birth of St. John the Baptist. This is a little-known solemnity because it is usually celebrated during the week and with little fanfare, so many do not have the opportunity to celebrate it. However, we ought to commemorate it because John the Baptist did so much to prepare the people of his time (as well as us) that Jesus is coming. We need to think about how we are preparing ourselves for the coming of Jesus.

We usually give attention to John the Baptist during Advent, but it is good to reflect on his impact throughout the year. As we know from the Gospel of Luke, John is a cousin of Jesus. After Mary was told she was going to be the Mother of God, she rushes to see Elizabeth. John leaps in Elizabeth's womb because he knows he is in the presence of Jesus, the Christ—the one who will redeem the world. After John was born and grew into adulthood, he went out into the wilderness dressed in camel's-hair, eating locusts and honey, and he was baptizing people. He shouted, "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight His paths" (Lk. 3:4). He prepares the people by saying, "one mightier than I is coming" (Lk. 3:16). He makes the people think about how they are preparing themselves for Jesus. From being in the womb to his martyrdom, John always knew and pointed to others where Christ is.

St. John the Baptist does the same for us today. He is the prophet who testifies and points out who Christ, the Messiah is. We believe that Christ will come again at the end of the world, but we do not know the day or the hour, so we must prepare ourselves for the coming of Christ by heeding John's prophetic words (Mt. 25:13). How are we preparing for the coming of Christ? Hopefully, it is through faith and good works. Hopefully, we are conforming our lives to Christ's by listening to the advice of John, "He must increase; I must decrease" (Jn. 4:30).
