Any Interest in History?

For some years before 1994 Fr. Ted Slaman, from the Hamilton Diocese, came to La Salette to celebrate Mass, once a year, with the Spanish speaking migrant laborers (most from Mexico). Their national feast is September 15/16. In 1994 the Catholic Women's League ladies of La Salette suggested the Mass be celebrated more frequently in Spanish because Fr. Frank was then living in Delhi and should help the workers of the areas. So it began..... At first 10 weeks a year to "cover" tobacco harvest. Fr. Graham, pastor of La Salette commented on counting 800 pennies one Sunday night!!! This year we expect to celebrate Mass for 29 Sundays in Waterford for Spanish speaking migrant workers.

Many Sundays our congregation is about 175 workers. That does not include the Catholic Women's League ladies who sell used clothing from 6—7pm each Sunday. Our only expense is bussing. Sharp's of Simcoe do a great job for us....but not for nothing. The Diocese of London, every parish of Ingersoll Deanery, the local CWL Councils, and the Sunday night collection at St. Bernard's, all help pay the transportation bill, which is our ONLY expense.

We are so thankful that many parishioners in Ingersoll Deanery contribute good quality used clothing for sale to the workers. It is a real service managed by the CWL ladies in Ingersoll Deanery. Everybody wins ..... well, perhaps the Waterford ladies really work hard... but we thank all, and invite you to witness and celebrate a Sunday evening at St. Bernard's in Waterford. Food & used clothing sales begin at 6 pm. Mass at 7pm. Busses leave for home at 8 pm at which time.....the priest goes to Tim Horton's.

God is so good.

I'm feel so spoiled getting to sit on the front lines and watch God working in the hearts of the young people of the Catholic Family of Parishes in Norfolk. I wanted to share some of the experiences of the young people who attended Steubenville Toronto from our Parishes:

One teenager who attended for the first time said: "[During Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament] I was very deep in my thoughts and that's how God was talking to me and it was very uplifting"

Another first timer to Steubenville said "It was nice to see all the young people our age so moved during Adoration because they felt the Holy Spirit there...our generation is widely known to be obsessed with our phones and not focus on these types of things so it was really nice to see everyone actually involved and not on their phones – I barely touched my phone all weekend.

All of those who went were excited for next year, but please continue to pray for those who went – Two of whom stood when invited to discern the priesthood, three others who showed interest in being baptized and one who received her first Bible at the conference.

All the talks will soon be up on YouTube and I'll be posting them to the Parish website <https://catholicfamilyparishesnorfolk.dol.ca/> when they become available.

Thank you for your prayers!

God bless

- Ian Duckworth

July 1669 - June 1670. The Catholic community of Port Dover each year holds an outdoor Mass at the historic site where the expedition over-wintered from October to March.

Francois Dollier de Casson, a Priest of the Society of Saint Sulpice, accompanied by a Deacon of his Order, Rene Brehant de Galinee, with seven ex-soldier companions set out from Montreal July 6, 1669 with the objective of bringing Christianity to the Indian tribes of the Ohio Valley. As well, they were to map what lay beyond Lake Ontario. They were setting off on a journey into the unknown. The French at this time were acquainted with Lake Ontario, but the existence of Lake Erie was only a rumour and the concept of Ohio even more so. The Iroquois, hostile to the French, had closed off travel and knowledge of the west via Lake Ontario. However, the Dollier Galinee party set off at a moment of peace between the warring parties. Portaging from Burlington Bay to the Grand River above Brantford, they descended the river onto Lake Erie becoming the first Europeans to see it. They reached Port Dover on October 17, 1669 and decided to over-winter in a protected site, now memorialized, where we hold our yearly out-door Mass. They spent five months in relative comfort, holding Mass thrice weekly in addition to the holy days. They restarted their journey on March 26, 1670. However, violent spring weather proved to be their undoing. They lost a canoe to weather at Long Point; but the crushing blow came at Point Pelee when they lost their entire Alter service necessary to perform Mass. This was central to their mission to convert Indians. They decided they had to abandon their mission to the Indians of the Ohio Valley. They returned to Montreal by way of an epic canoe trip all the way down Lake Erie, through Lake St. Clair, up the western shore of Southwestern Ontario and back to Montreal from Sault Ste. Marie by way of known passage through Lake Nipissing and the upper Ottawa river. All-in-all a trip of over three thousand kilometres within a year. The Deacon Galinee chronicled the expedition expressing a faith through many setbacks that a beneficent God would provide a way through their difficulties; and it was so.

Our program to commemorate this anniversary year is to organize around our numerous summer events and festivals such as:

- September 6 Wintering Site Mass,
- October 27 presentation at Port Dover Harbour Museum by John Ayre on "The voyage of Dollier de Casson and Galinee 1669-1670", 1 - 3 pm,
- April 4, 2020 mass celebration at Cross Memorial, involve primary and high school boys and girls.

Please support as the occasion allows.

Bishop Fabbro and the Diocese of London is asking all churches to begin to think about “Moments of Encounter”. This is a wonderful retreat that is aimed at “engaging , forming and commissioning intentional disciples”. But what does that mean?

Jesus intended us to become not only followers of Christ, but also to become His Disciples. This means that we need to invite others to join us in living out and celebrating our faith. Some of us have never learned how to “Go forth”, sharing the Good News with others. Some of us would like to be involved, but not by ourselves. Some of us don’t even realize Jesus in asking us! This retreat will explore all of that and more.

Please pray and think about joining us. The date has been chosen. It is Saturday November the 23rd , from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

If you wish to register and attend this Retreat Experience, that would be wonderful, please complete the following: Please print or type.

Of course, you may wish to register at a later date with more information, but as soon as we reach our goal of 30 people from each parish. We can celebrate ! Please take this invitation seriously because WE NEED YOU !

We have a years worth of our Parish Bulletin cover printed professionally by a company. Even with the changes in staff and office hours; we feel it would not be good stewardship of parish money to throw out the remaining year's worth of Bulletins. Therefore, we won't be ordering new Bulletin Covers until we have used all the "old" covers.

.....Thanks for your understanding      Debbie Drinkwater

A short message from Father Alan,

I hear a few concerns, some times complaints, about the office hours. We are sorry for these changes; such as closing the office Fridays, but we are trying to be good stewards of YOUR money. We are also trying to serve all parishes equally. Therefore, by choosing two full days a week in Simcoe and two full days in Delhi, we believe we are serving you well and saving money. I believe the money we are saving in reduced office hours is better spent in ministry. These changes mean we all have to adapt and reschedule our visits to the office.
