Can you find the hidden picture of
St. Elizabeth?

+ My dear parishioners and friends:

What a fantastic weekend to welcome you back to Mass! It felt like such a wonderful homecoming to see those of you just returning to church as well as those who have already been back with us for a little while now. I am so happy to say that I think this challenging time of COVID is beginning to fade, and for that we may be truly grateful!

As I mentioned in my homily, the Feast of Corpus Christi was the perfect occasion to return to church. For many, this was the very first time in a long time to physically receive the Body and Blood of Jesus. Never before in our lives have we experienced this kind of deprivation, when all we could do was to make an Act of Spiritual Communion and tell Jesus how much we desired to receive Him into our soul. It is unlikely that we will ever forget these last 15 months, and so joyously, I want to introduce you to another Communion prayer – Anima Christi.

My granduncle, Father Joseph Fichter, was a famous Jesuit sociologist. He had a truly beautiful priesthood and spent much of his time vigorously trying to bring desegregation to the deep South. I think we could say that his thinking was ahead of his time. In any event, I mention Uncle Joe because as he lay dying, he had taped to his wall, where he could see it, a copy of the Anima Christi prayer. Here is the English translation:

*Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds, hide me.
Do not let me be separated from you.
From the malicious enemy, defend me.
In the hour of my death, call me
and bid me come to You,
that with your saints I may praise You
for ever and ever. Amen.*

Speaking of celebrations, I want to congratulate our Eighth Grade class on their graduation! You can see their smiling faces on the front cover of this bulletin. They are an exceptional group of students, who like their predecessors, managed to complete this part of their education under restrictive and difficult circumstances. I am so proud of all of them, their teachers, and their parents. They are unstoppable, and I think this will be their hallmark for everything they undertake in the future! Once again, my sincere congratulations on a job so well done!

In a bit of a lighter moment, we are making a change to our bulletin. Instead of our weekly game of Finding Jesus, we are now looking for Saint Elizabeth! Please be advised, and good luck to all our participants.

Finally, as we begin these summer months, let us take time to relax a little and take a mental inventory of so many things for which we can be grateful. I know for a fact how grateful I am for each of you!

In Christ's Peace,

Father Stephen

Stewardship Reflection: 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil." - 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10 We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?
