Dearly Beloved in Christ,

We shall soon be having our ministry fair in the parish. It is incumbent on us as parishioners and followers of Christ to consider serving in one of our ministries in fulfillment of what Jesus proclaimed in the Gospel: "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Matthew 20:28). I invite you to think about service. Service is putting your gifts at the disposal of others. Service is sacrifice, extending yourself, stretching out a helping hand towards others in need, translating love from words into meaningful deeds.

In the Gospel text last week, the apostles James and John, come to Jesus with a request. They know that Jesus has been talking about the kingdom that He is going to establish and they want to make sure that they get a good place in the new order. After all, they gave up everything to follow Jesus, so it seems only fair to them that they should get a good position. When the rest of the disciples hear about what John and James were up to, they become angry.

Perhaps they were angry because these fellows were trying to promote themselves over the rest. Or, perhaps they were angry because James and John asked Jesus first. Whatever the reason, they were steamed! Their reaction to what James and John did is no better than the request James and John made. But Jesus doesn't allow their anger to simmer. He addresses the issue at hand and calls their attention to the Gentile world around them. He lets them know that 'high seat seeking' is the way of the world.

Many people want to be recognized for the things they do. They want a pat on the back and to hear 'thank you', and 'good job.' They do what they do because they want recognition - and they have their reward. Jesus uses His impending sacrifice as the ultimate example of sacrificial service. He sets the pattern that all of His people are commanded to follow - not to be served, but to serve.

Jesus tells us that "Whoever would be great among you must be your servant" (Matthew 20:26). Service was His passion. Service was His life. The greatest example of this can be seen the night before He went to the cross when He washed His disciples' feet and commanded them to do the same. If our God is willing to serve humanity, we should be willing to serve as well. May we freely serve others for the glory of God alone! Once again, please consider serving God by volunteering in one of the ministries we have here in St. Elizabeth's parish.

Peace and Love
Fr. Francis
