+ Dear Friends:

Happy Mother's Day! I wish all our mothers a wonderful day with your families, and I especially send my love and prayers to all our moms, who are now in our heavenly home.

In fact, Mother's Day is a wonderful reminder that May is devoted to the Blessed Mother, and as you see on the cover of our bulletin today, Mary nurtures us in her love. I always feel that she walks with me every day as I pray the Rosary. Remember to keep her close. She will always be there to help.

Bishop Flesey was with us last weekend for our third and fourth sessions of Confirmation. He is such an inspiration with his boundless enthusiasm. I hope I do as well in my later years! This weekend and next, our 2nd graders are receiving First Communion. Our staff and catechists do such a wonderful job preparing them for these beautiful sacraments, but I really want to thank our parents. You take the first step bringing your children to Mass each week and ensuring their future as committed Catholics. I am well aware of all that happens during your week, but you and your families will be continually blessed by God for making Him part of your daily lives. I am proud of the excellent partnership between St. E's and our families!

As you know, Cardinal Tobin renewed me for my next six-year term as pastor. It is truly my pleasure to be here to serve. We have already shared so much together as a parish, and I know that these next six years will only bring us closer together. We have a lot more to do, and I can't wait to get started!

One of the first things I am focused on is to restore our custom of the Healing Mass. We used to do this as parish, but it has become a bit lost in the last years. On Saturday, June 3, at 9 AM, we will administer the anointing of the sick at Mass. If you or someone you know is struggling with health issues, please come for this very special blessing.

In other news, our film, Trinity's Triumph, will be distributed on several major platforms sometime between Labor Day and Thanksgiving. I will be sure to let you know where you can find it once that information has been given to me.

My experience of filming Trinity's Triumph was surreal. Twenty-five years ago, I could never have imagined that an idea I was tossing around in my mind would become the film it is today. Nor could I have imagined all the very talented people I would meet along the way who would guide my concept through to completion with such dedication and hard work.

I hope you enjoyed seeing the trailer at Mass. I know I owe a special screening to the people who attended the 5 PM Mass last weekend. I will make sure that we include it on our website soon. I have placed a couple of production photos here that I thought you would enjoy. They certainly bring back memories of those long shoot days!

Thank you for so generously sharing in this experience with me. I was overjoyed to see so many of you at the premiere. Your support meant a lot!

Let us continue to enjoy these beautiful spring days and know how truly blessed we are!

In His Peace,

Father Stephen
