The Greek word, lepros, traditionally translated as leprosy, was used for various diseases affecting the skin. In Scripture, the disease of leprosy is symbolic of Sin. It shows that Sin is a contagion. In fact, the Rite of Baptism describes Sin as a “contagion”. Sin spreads like a disease. Sins are bad things we do, yes, but Sin, capital “S,” is a disease, a contagion. Think of a plaque in time-lapse maps: a blank map was overrun with the “red” of the disease. It’s the same thing with Sin.

The prophet Ezekiel had a vision (Ezekiel 47) where he saw water trickling out of the Temple. This water then became a stream, and then a deep river flowing through the desert until it reached the Dead Sea, making the salty water of the Dead Sea fresh enough for it to be full of fish and life.

In Ezekiel’s vision, God’s presence comes out of the Temple and makes us pure and holy. It comes to heal and build us up. In the Gospel of Mark, there is the word “dynamis” which comes from “dunamai,” meaning force; specially, miraculous power that we translate as “miracle” or “signs and wonders”. Dynamis, the word Mark uses to describe these actions, literally means, “works of power”. What’s the point? Think: how does Jesus heal people? He does it by touching them. Why? It’s to show that while Jesus should become impure by touching them, while Jesus should contract the disease of leprosy by getting in close-contact with them, what happens instead is the exact opposite: these people are made whole, they’re cleansed, they’re healed.

We as followers are God’s new Temple, and through the people who receive the sacraments, God’s holy presence goes out into the world and brings life and healing and hope. In Baptism and Confirmation and, most especially, the Eucharist, we enter into this synergy; we become these Temples of God’s presence throughout the world, with streams of living water flowing out from us to renew the world. This is what the leper did too, by publicizing the whole matter; he proclaimed the Good News to others, and we are called to do the same.

Fr Robert

Lenten Regulations

1. The days of both Fast & Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection.

The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted and (2) smaller meals which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity.

Those between the ages of 18-59 are obliged to fast. On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

2. The obligation to observe the laws of Fast & Abstinence "substantially" or as whole is a serious obligation.

3. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

4. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, February 17, 2024 to the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, May 26, 2024

"To everything there is a season and a every purpose under heaven."
