+ Dear Friends:

Thanks for all your kind remarks about my homily last weekend. Many of you were intrigued about the “secret or quiet” prayers that priests and deacons say during Mass, so I decided to dedicate this column to the first three prayers we say sotto voce or under our breath. Of course, there isn’t anything confidential about these prayers that we say in this whispered manner. They are meant to help us participate more fully and attentively in the sacred liturgy. I hope that this brief explanation will help us all to grow in our love for Christ.

The first prayer, which is said before proclaiming the Gospel is “Cleanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, that I may worthily proclaim your holy Gospel.” When I was a young priest, I memorized it in Latin: “Munda cor meum ac labia mea, omnipotens Deus, ut sanctum Evangelium tuum digne valeam nuntiare.” I find these words helpful because all of us are always in need of cleansing and none of us is worthy without the grace of God.

At the end of the Gospel, we kiss the book and say, “Through the words of the Gospel, may our sins be wiped away.” Or in Latin, “Per evangelica dicta, deleantur nostra delicta.” I like how it rhymes in Latin. It’s a solid reinforcement of the first private prayer.

The third prayer is the one that I would like to focus on today since I highlighted it in my homily last weekend. This prayer is usually said by the deacon at our weekend celebrations and by the priest during our weekday liturgies. As we pour a small amount of water into the wine, we say: “By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.” As Saint Cyprian has said, “We see that in the water is understood the people, but in the wine is showed the blood of Christ. But when the water is mingled in the cup with wine, the people is made one with Christ... (and) that mixture cannot anymore be separated.” What joy to be one with Christ!

Many of you have told me how pleased you were with the preaching of Father Nick Sertich at our Advent mission last month. His words touched our hearts and brought us closer to God. As I told our staff at our most recent meeting, I will continue to invite priests and deacons from outside our parish to preach so we may be enriched by the fresh perspectives they bring. In that vein, please mark your calendars for our Lenten Reflection and Penance Service, which will be delivered by Deacon Matt DeVoti on February 23 at 7 PM.

Can you believe that Ash Wednesday is exactly one month away? As I said in the opening point of my homily last week, TIME FLIES. May we all stay focused on what matters most during this brief stretch of Ordinary Time!

In Christ’s Peace,

Father Stephen

P.S. If you don’t receive my Monday morning email blast, please contact Mary Ann Musto at mmusto@saintelizabeths.org so she may make sure we have your correct address.

The funds raised will go to Birthright in Maywood, Good Counsel Homes, and the Bergen County RTL Chapter. Prayer Chain: Would you like to join our Prayer Chain Ministry? It is easy to pray for ourselves and our families but can you take the time to pray for the needs of others? If you can, then our prayer chain is for you. If you believe that prayer can and does make a difference, perhaps you would like to join our Prayer Chain. All praying is done in private and is confidential. Once a month, you will receive a list of people to pray for who needs our prayers. "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:6-7). Call the Parish Office at 201-891-1122 ext. 212 or e-mail mmusto@saintelizabeths.org to join the Prayer Chain or to add an intention.
