

All Saints

"Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." Matthew 5:11-12

All Souls

"The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace."

Dear friends in Christ Jesus,

In New York City, on a cold day in December, a little boy, about 10-years-old, was standing before a shoe store on the roadway, barefooted, peering through the window, and shivering with cold. A lady approached the young boy and said, 'my, but you're in such deep thought staring in that window!' 'I was asking God to give me a pair of shoes,' was the boy's reply. The lady took him by the hand, went into the store, and asked the clerk to get half a dozen pairs of socks for the boy. She then asked if he could give her a basin of water and a towel. He quickly brought them to her. She took the little fellow to the back part of the store and, removing her gloves, knelt down, washed his little feet, and dried them with the towel. By this time, the clerk had returned with the socks. Placing a pair upon the boy's feet, she purchased him a pair of shoes. She tied up the remaining pairs of socks and gave them to him. She patted him on the head and said, 'No doubt, you will be more comfortable now.' As she turned to go, the astonished kid caught her by the hand and looking up into her face, with tears in his eyes, asked her. 'Are you God?' No, said the woman. I am only his child. The boy smiled and said: I knew it all the time. You are some relation of his.

In the Gospel today, Jesus combines the commandment to love God with the commandment to love one's neighbor and gives the result as one Commandment of supreme importance in Christian life. Jesus underlines the principle that we are to love our neighbor as we love ourselves because as God's children both of us bear God's image, and to honor God's image is to honor Him. Love for our neighbor is a matter, not of feelings, but of deeds by which we share with others the unmerited love that God lavishes on us. The last Sunday of October is also known as Priesthood Sunday, which is a special day set aside to honor the priesthood. This year the day falls of October 29, 2017. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. So, let us pray for all our priests and pray for more vocations to priesthood and religious life. Have a nice week-end.

Sincerely, Fr Joseph.

A Big Thank You from St. Mary School Students and Staff. With your support, we raised $330 at the Big T fundraiser.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar—In today's gospel the Pharisee was talking about commandments (Something we are forced to obey by external pressure) and Jesus was talking about love (an internal exhortation to give our heart, soul and mind to another). One demands allegiance, the other requires personal commitment. In our families we daily lay down our lives for each other not because we 'gotta' but because love compels us.

KNIGHTLY NEWS

It is hard to believe, but the weather seems to be returning to normal for this time of year. Now we must draw attention to children who do not have coats for the coming winter. The Knights are starting their Coats for Kids drive. As I did last year, I again invite you if you wish to donate funds to assist us in our effort. Last year we were able to give twice as many coats to area children. You can send checks made payable to Knights of Columbus to Grand Knight Blaine Douglas, P. O. Box 42, Paw Paw, MI 49079, or put them in the Sunday collection with an indication in the Memo area that it is for Coats for Kids. Call Blaine at 269-668-6215 with questions. Thank you for your support.
