THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

That we may kneel before God every day, humbly recognizing that everything we have is a gift and asking God to guide us in the ways we use and share His many gifts. "...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:14 Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Dear Parish Family,

Earlier this month, Pope Leo XIV issued his first apostolic exhortation titled Dilexi Te "On Love for the Poor." This magisterial text carries forward the spirit of Pope Leo's predecessor, Pope Francis, whose commitment to the poor was made manifest in his preaching, teaching, and actions. Like Pope Francis, Pope Leo is inspired by the life and legacy of St. Francis of Assisi whose embrace of evangelical poverty was both a protest against the injustice of material poverty and a sign of solidarity with those people whom society had overlooked, forgotten, or simply pushed to the margins and placed out of sight.

Pope Leo reminds us that, "The condition of the poor is a cry that, throughout human history, constantly challenges our lives, societies, political and economic systems, and, not least, the Church. On the wounded faces of the poor, we see the suffering of the innocent and, therefore, the suffering of Christ himself" (DT 9). Reiterating the church's teaching on the "option for the poor," the pope points our attention to the whole of sacred scripture that affirms God's closeness to those who suffer and who calls the comfortable and powerful to conversion for the sake of their neighbors. He writes: "From the beginning of Scripture, God's love is vividly demonstrated by his protection of the weak and the poor, to the extent that he can be said to have a particular fondness for them. 'God's heart has a special place for the poor... The entire history of our redemption is marked by the presence of the poor'" (DT 17).

This Sunday's readings bear witness to this truth of God's distinctive care and concern for the poor. The wisdom of Ben Sira in our first reading boldly proclaims that "The Lord is a God of justice" and, although God loves all without favorites, God "hears the cry of the oppressed." The psalmist likewise announces that "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" and that "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."

As you read this, I will be in Rome praying for all of you.

Sincerely,

Fr. Tom

THE IMPORTANCE OF HOLY IMAGES IN OUR LIVES

St. Michael Presents
Monday, Oct 27th
 Potluck at 6:30 PM
 Talk starts at 7:00 PM
 in Wleczyk Hall

Come and listen to nationally acclaimed Catholic Artist, Elizabeth Zelasko, speak about the history of images, art in the Catholic Church, and the impact holy images can have on our lives.

As children, 90% of our learning is visual! As adults, what we let into this precious sensory system that God has given us matters even more. The world offers us a constant stream of visual distraction. By learning about the history of art in the church and hanging holy images in our homes our minds and our eyes are redirected to the things above.

FREE Babysitting is available in the nursery for parishioners, 6:00-8:00 PM, Ages 1-12. Please call Kristy to register children at (979) 299-3505

ONLINE GIVING The process is very simple! You may go to our website, www.smlj.org and click on the online giving icon. Another option is: www.osvhub.com/smlj
 Thank you for continuing to support St. Michael's.

All-Saints Festival

When: Wed. Oct. 29
Time: 6 pm – 7:15 pm
Where: Hall in the Family Life Center
Why: To learn about the Saint's with fun activities and games.

What to wear: A saint's costume!

The Knights of Columbus #6812 will be selling their delicious smoked chickens after all masses on Sunday, Nov 2 for $12 – a great way to support their charitable efforts and enjoy delicious BBQ!

“Thanks” for “Giving”

Please consider sponsoring a generous food basket for a needy family on Thanksgiving (cost is $120) or give any monetary gift to help out when our Pantry supplies are critically low (summer, Christmas, etc.). Stop by the SVdP table in the hallway of the Family Life Center on the weekends of November 8-9 and November 15 & 16 to donate. Contact Gwen Williams 236 -4064 for more information.
