ALL SOULS DAY

That we may joyfully share the abundant gifts God has given to us. "But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" Luke 19:8 We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

All Souls Day: Hope Beyond the Grave

Today, on All Souls Day, we gather not in fear of death, but in the light of faith and hope in Jesus Christ. On this day, we recall our human condition and the brevity of our lives on earth. As Christians that believe in God's love, we know that death in this world is not the end. Death does not destroy the bonds that we forge in our lives. We remember our beloved dead, not as shadows of the past, but as souls still journeying toward the fullness of God's presence.

The readings today echo God's promise of eternal life to those who believe in and follow Jesus Christ. These are not just poetic words; they are the foundation of our Christian hope. So today, we pray. We pray for those who have no one to pray for them. We pray for the forgotten, the abandoned, the victims of war, disaster, and injustice. We pray for our parents, siblings, friends, and even strangers.

Let us live our lives with that eternal perspective. Let us love more deeply, forgive more freely, and hope more fiercely. Because one day we will be remembered on All Souls Day. May those who come after us find us filled with His grace and waiting for the face of God.

*Sincerely,
Deacon Jeff*

The Society of St Vincent de Paul is an international Catholic organization of lay persons founded in 1833 by Frederic Ozanam and his companions. It seeks in a spirit of justice and charity to help those who are suffering by person-to-person involvement of its members.

Who are the Poor? Among the poor are those who have lost jobs or had other financial disasters, the underpaid working poor, the elderly on fixed income, the homeless, the disabled, single parents, the uneducated, and those who suffer from discrimination. The poor could be your neighbor.

Vincentian Spirituality—Vincetians seek through prayer, meditation on the scriptures, the teachings of the Church, through their daily lives and their relationship with those in need, to bear witness to the love of Christ.

Services of the local Chapter of SVdP

Financial assistance: rent, utilities, prescriptions
Food: year-round pantry & Thanksgiving baskets, and Referrals to government and other agencies.

The society is open to all who wish to live their faith by loving and serving their neighbor. We are in need of additional members to receive calls and make visits in teams of two.
