Dear Parish Family,

Please pray for all who are having problems in their personal and Christian lives. Hurt, pain, and suffering are heavy burdens to carry in life. With your prayers and the powerful grace of God, may they soon experience healing, forgiveness, and joy. The mystical body of Christ is one. When one of the members is hurting, then there is an ache in the whole body. Your prayers for them will return to you and strengthen yourself and your call in life. All of us can minister to each other by the prayers we lift up, and the sacrifices we make on their behalf. There is so much power in prayer. A prayer never goes unanswered. Our Heavenly Father deeply cares for each and everyone of us.

I noticed the candy section at the store (happened to come upon the aisle by accident) is loaded to tell everyone how much we love them on February 14. Just in case, someone did not realize our gesture of love on December 25, we can now say it again with sugar. We are a loving people---God made us just like He is! But, there is the opposite of love and that is hate. And how sad it is, but some choose to live without love. If we choose or decide to despise or hate just one person, our spirit is attacked by a far deadlier disease than cancer or whatever ---- just one.... We must (we have to) love everyone. We must have the heart of a child to see God as He is. May we always choose to love.

Love,

Fr. Dwight
