"There are no strangers here... only friends you haven't met."

"Look out for Number One!" the saying goes. Society often encourages us to take care of ourselves first. This easily leads to a sense of selfishness, feelings of jealousy, and actions of greed. As Christians, we know that these attitudes are antithetical to the model of Jesus, who emptied himself to become flesh and offered himself as the ultimate sacrifice. Let us pray that we are able to avoid the temptations of jealousy and envy in our lives.

I would like to THANK every member of St. Michael for making our bazaar great success in so many ways. Once all the numbers are in, we expect to have raised over $57,000. The weather was not as cooperative as I would like to have seen, but the kids did get a small taste of our outside activities – next year, we will all have to pray a little harder! Of course, Brian's Bar-B-Q was as wonderful as ever. There were several parishioners who were proudly carrying around shiny trophies they won in the domino tournament. I saw many of you looking over all the items available in the Silent Auction and placing bids. The Bake Sale was doing a brisk business every time I was in the hallway– we have some really good bakers. The Live Auction was very entertaining thanks to our auctioneer, Jarrod Smith, who kept the auction lively and moving quickly. I loved looking out over Wleczyk Hall and seeing the tables full of folks enjoying fellowship. This event was a success because of each and every one of you. It took many prayers, monetary donations, live and silent auction donations, love for your fellow parishioners and volunteers – too many to count. Again, THANK YOU! Our team is so grateful to be able to serve each of you and our parish.

"WELCOMING THE STRANGER"

By Leah Libresco

Leah Libresco grew up as an atheist. When she went to college, she picked a fight with the most interesting wrong people she could find at Yale: the Catholics. After a lot of reading, arguing, and writing, she wound up changing her own mind and converting. Her first book, Arriving at Amen: Seven Catholic Prayers that Even I Can Answer explains her conversion, and the challenge of learning faith as a foreign language. Her second, Building the Benedict Option: A Guide to Gathering Two or Three Together in His Name, is a guide to creating thick Christian community. Her writing has appeared in FiveThirtyEight, The Washington Post, Commonweal, First Things, and The American Interest.
