"... for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself
will be exalted."

Luke 18:14

What kind of attitude do we bring with us to Mass each weekend? Do we feel proud of ourselves for what we have accomplished this week? Or do we feel inadequate, sorry for all the times we've failed, aware of our human weaknesses? As we celebrate the Eucharist together, let us examine our consciences and recognize our need for God's mercy.

Dear Parish Family,

A few days from today we will be celebrating the great feast of the Communion of Saints, familiarly and fondly called All Saints Day and All Souls Day. As far back as I can remember being in this country, Halloween, All Saints and All Souls seemed to intertwine with each other. It always paints a smile on my face, seeing children being accompanied by parents having so much fun begging for candies and treats. Every neighbor seemed very friendly and welcoming at their front door. And, each year not only the goody bag seemed to grow and grow but the costumes and masks we see that children put on are more and more scary and gruesome. Halloween means a sacred evening, an evening moving towards the great feast of the Saints. Men and women of extraordinary lives and virtue worthy of our following. Since it is a 'hallowed evening' maybe we can encourage our kids to put on Saints costumes or we ourselves if we still don costumes on this day. Wouldn't it be so great to be different and set apart from the ongoing trend of the time? Then truly we can sing the hymn When the Saints Go Marching In! And then we come to All Souls Day. The day seemed quiet and sad as we remembered praying for loved ones, friends, neighbors, and relatives who passed away. Perhaps you went to the cemetery and lit a candle for them, offered prayers and celebrated mass for their eternal repose. It's all an act of love for them. Yes, we miss them but our faith also tells us we will all be together again one day in heaven.

God bless you!
Fr Dwight

Many of these people are vulnerable to abuse because they live alone or are dependent on someone else for their care. Texas requires by law the reporting of elder abuse or the suspicion of elder abuse. If you know of someone who cannot care for himself/herself, or who is being abused, neglected or exploited, whether they live alone or with a spouse or caregiver, Texas law requires that you report the abuse. The number is 1-800-252-5400; your report will remain confidential. For additional information, please contact the Office of Aging at 713-741-8712.

Looking for parenting help? The office of Family Life Ministry has trained professionals around the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston who provide services to parents needing assistance with their children. ## CONTRIBUTION INFORMATION AND REMINDERS

Please remember to write ONE check per envelope. We are unable to "split" checks among regular envelopes and/or special collection envelopes.

- Write or check the amount on the front of the envelope. This is very important in order to insure accurate recording.
- PLEASE do not put tape or stickers on your envelopes. This causes them to stick together.

In Christendom, saints or holy people were called "hallowed", hence the name "All Hallows' Day" which later became All Saints' Day. The evening, or "e'en" before the feast became popularly known as "All Hallows' Eve" or even shorter, "Hallowe'en".
