BULLETIN DEADLINE Monday 12:00 noon

"Strive to enter through the narrow door, for many,
I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough."

Luke 13:24

We gather together today in our own local communities, while millions of others gather together in their communities all over the world. When Isaiah wrote that the LORD comes to "gather nations of every language," could he have imagined over a billion believers, millions from a hemisphere not even conceived of by those of his place and time? Let us celebrate that hundreds of years and thousands of miles away, we are welcomed just as much as people in Isaiah's or Jesus' time.

Dear Parish Family,

I was asked, "Father, what can you say of St. Michael Parish"? I answered, "many things, but the one thing that stands out is that you are a giving community. You are always ready to help someone in need." Sad to say, sometimes we find it difficult to help because of many deceptive causes in the world today. We can be assured, however, of the true need and to know that we are feeding the poor, giving a cup of water in the name of Jesus, visiting the sick and elderly, when we give to the DSF- our Diocesan Services Fund. We are already halfway in this yearly fundraising event of the Archdiocese and I am sure you have already received a letter from our Cardinal asking for our help. Yes, it is asked of us every year. This year we are asked to contribute $122,000, though your response is kind of slow, I believe we can do it. If we continue to nurture the same enthusiasm and the willingness to help, we can easily achieve our goal.

The cause is so real and so very much needed from paying salaries to hospital and prison chaplains to the different archdiocesan programs....AIDS Ministry....Respect Life....Family Counseling....Center for the Deaf... Seafarers' Center, etc. One program after another to meet the needs of the Church today. Our Archdiocesan family needs our support. Please make a pledge today if you had not yet done so. A cup of water.....pledge....You did it for Jesus! How blessed you are!!!!

Peace, Fr. Dwight
