St. Michael's Parish Family,

My apologies for another email but wanted you to know about the activities this weekend.

First though, please continue to pray for those impacted by Hurricane Laura. While the impact here has been thankfully light, I have been in touch with a friend in the Lake Charles area and it is pretty bad there.

So this weekend we are excited to have Deacon Joseph White join us for our Masses! He will deliver the homily at the 5:30pm and 8:00am Mass and it will be great to see him before he heads back to Rome to continue his studies. God is good!

Deacon Joseph will not be delivering the homily at the 10:00am Mass because as Father Dwight wrote yesterday, the second group of candidates will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at that Mass. And again, God is good! While this group is smaller than the first, there will only be a couple of pews in the church beyond those needed for the candidates and their families. So.....

Please know that we will have the Hall air conditioned and ready for overflow at any of the Masses and Holy Communion will be brought to those attending in the Hall. Thank you for your understanding.

Finally, this weekend the KC's will be fulfilling orders for their BBQ Chicken Sale benefitting Deacon Joseph which thanks to many of you, has sold out. For those picking up your chicken after the 8:00am and 10:00am Sunday Masses, there will be Knights outside the main door of the Church. For those picking up by car, the drive through will be open from 9:00am to Noon and is located on the parking lot side of the Family Life Center. While unfortunately extra chickens are not available, you can always make a love offering at those sales locations and the KC's will get that to Deacon Joseph.

Have a blessed day!
