27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But from the beginning of creation,
'God made them male and female.
For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.'"

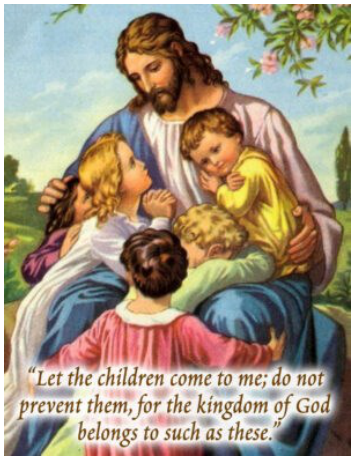
Mk 10:6-8



That we may care for the planet and be better stewards of the earth's resources. "So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." (Genesis 2:19) The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

Dear Parish Family,

He was the typical affluent young man of his time. Being a son of wealthy parents, he had everything at his disposal. He lived a life of privilege, was dressed in fine clothes and loved to spend money with the approval of his rich parents. He hung out with his equally rich friends. It was certainly a life of leisure and pleasure for this young man. But not satisfied with this kind of life, he sought a life of adventure by becoming a soldier and joined a military expedition. It came to be that he was captured and imprisoned.

While in prison, his conversion began to form and take shape. After his release, things were never the same again. He renounced his former sinful, pleasure-seeking life, and thus began the saintly life of Francis from Assisi in Italy whose feast day we celebrate on Monday, October 4.

Perhaps the life of St Francis as a young man mirrors itself a little bit in our lives. Of course, many of us were not born rich and did not dress in fine clothes or hang out with rich friends. But maybe we lived a carefree life, one without a care for others or God. Then it happened suddenly, a wake-up call from God and like St. Francis, things were never the same again. We found ourselves walking in the path that God mapped out for us early in our lives but which we did not previously see or notice.

Just as God did not give up on St Francis, He never gives up on us. We are all His children and He wants to keep each of us together with Him for all eternity.

A Blessed Week to you!

Fr. Dwight
