

Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you

Matthew 5:44

That we find it in our hearts to pray for people that don't always treat us well. "But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..." Matthew 5:44 Love your enemies, easier said than done. But, remember, the foundation of stewardship is prayer. When we are in close communication with God, it opens our heart and it turns our attention away from "me" and moves it towards God and others. It changes my heart and actions, allowing for a little more empathy for "my enemy." When we pray for others, even our enemies, it may soften their hearts as well.

SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear Parish Family,

What an honor and a special blessing for our parish of St. Michael to have another ordained minister added to the good number of what we already have. All in all our parish has been blessed with a good number of men and women who have responded to God's call to a life of service. We congratulate today Deacon John Kyle, his wife Debra and his family for this special gift from God. After six long years of hard work and study, Deacon John has achieved his goal. We as a parish are also proud of this yet another blessing bestowed on us by God. I hope that we continue to pray for Deacon John as he begins his ministry of service to God's people!

This coming Wednesday we enter once again the season of Lent. We journey with the Lord into His suffering and death on the cross. We begin this holy season with the ashes traced on our foreheads to remind us of our sinfulness and our need of God's forgiveness in our lives. After all, it is our sins that drove the Lord to the cross.

What are your plans for this Lent? What are the sacrifices you are planning to make or the things you plan to give up for Lent? Whatever your plans are, I hope and pray that they contribute to a holier you and a better follower of Him who suffered and died for us!

God bless!

Fr. Dwight

Love is Hard

Love and hate are not the only options. In between lies a range of emotions including concern and indifference. If someone offends us, we may respond in a variety of ways. Some people feel hatred, bear grudges, and seek revenge. It is a fairly easy choice. But others take the harder option.

The Book of Leviticus proposes this difficult solution. God said to Moses, "You shall not bear hatred for your brother or sister in your heart. ... Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people. You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

This command is one of the most challenging in the entire Old Testament, yet Jesus chose it as one of the greatest commandments: Love your neighbor.

The Book of Leviticus realizes that not every neighbor is lovable. "You may have to reprove your fellow citizen." People sometimes do the wrong thing. They should not continue such behavior. You may have the opportunity to offer correction. But correction is not a license for anger, or for the disruption of charity. When correcting your neighbor, Leviticus says, "do not incur sin." Be not hateful. Be loving.

It is easy to love the neighbor we like, but it is harder to love the neighbor who offends. That love can take many forms—even the form of charitable correction. But it should never deteriorate to hatred. There are other options.
