12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.” - Mt 10:31

Notes from Father Tom...

Happy Fathers Day to all fathers, grandfathers, great grandfathers and all who serve in a fatherly role. May God bless you.

In the bulletin today you will notice columns from staff people. We thought this would be good to do now because there are people you do not yet know very well. Cameron Popik will be ordained as a deacon on August 7 and a priest in May. I have enjoyed getting to know him. Sister Denise Marie has been with us since Advent but she was gone on retreat and then chapter and then the pandemic hit so she seems new to you. Other staff writing this week are not new but it is good that you hear from them too.

I started hearing confessions last Saturday. I am hearing them in the daily Mass chapel. There is a screen so you can be anonymous. It is one person in the chapel at a time. Music plays in the church and baptistery to give you a little more assurance that no one can hear you.

Remember that we have no obligation to attend Mass right now because of the virus. At the same time we should be worshipping privately. That can take many forms. Some may be watching Masses we stream and some watch televised Masses. Some spend significant time in prayer and reading Scripture. The important thing is to stay connected with the Lord even though it is difficult to stay connected with His people. Please pray that a vaccine is discovered and becomes readily available.

Father Tom

*Catechists are people who keep the memory of God alive;
they keep it alive in themselves and they are able to revive it in others.
~Pope Francis*

Covid-19 remains actively among us, sad to say. The protesters continue seeking changes. The movement is becoming more non-violent. Stories are appearing about the relationships happening among the diverse people who are gathering.

The timing of Covid-19 and steams of people gathering to send an important message to leaders is complicating two goals: health and equality. Which will win out-the voice of the people or the impact of the virus? My prayer is that the people will win in both the healing of the body and in the healing of the spirit.

We can help the healing by ways of sharing kindness, joy, peace etc. It really is these small acts of kindness which can become contagious in a good way. These gestures whether in words or actions make a difference. Honest!

I have talked to young parents by phone or email, I can hear their gratitude that school has wound down for now and heard their need to let summer call them outdoors to breathe in fresh air! We all feel that way. Let our taking in of fresh air remind us of God's presence within us. Remember in the story of Creation, God gave Adam and Eve his own breath which brought them to life. The same breath of God (Holy Spirit) is calling us to new life each day. Amazing!

Happy Father's Day! Let us remember the moments shared with our fathers whether living or deceased. Celebrate their lives in one way or another.

There are many things of which we can be afraid: being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. For some, identifying and overcoming their fears is a daunting task. Regardless of how much they may want to break the cycle of fear, they find that they remain close friends with old and dysfunctional behavioral habits and norms. Maybe what they really fear is change. There are many who gravitate to the familiar and comfortable, and find safety and security in doing so, even if they remain mired in mediocrity. Human beings have to learn that there is life beyond the "what has always been" and that happiness and depth are possible when old structures and systems have to be left behind.

Can you leave the near and dear, the comfortable and familiar, the safe and secure, and discover new opportunities? The sheer thought of doing so can bring on feelings of apprehension, intense anger, resentment, defensiveness, reluctance, resistance, and even apathy. If we have to be responsible for making the change, cowardice can creep in. If someone else is to blame for making the change, any number of possible negative reactions are possible. In the end, only one thing is required and that is God. If I can rely on and deepen my relationship with God, especially in the Eucharist along with a community of believers, then little else is of great concern. We have to figure out what is really important. It is not always what we think.

The Gospel calls us to stretch ourselves and try new things, not to remain stuck and stagnant in familiar ways. We are asked to live life more deliberately, radically, and intentionally. We are asked to leave the familiar behind and learn to live with changing, and often limiting, human structures. We cannot get too caught up in the physical, ideological, or structural systems we are used to. The Holy Spirit always leads and guides us. If we trust this, we will find ourselves doing things we never thought we could do. Always seek the path to joy and love. They keep us from falling victim to our fears and from seeking the nostalgic crutches we think we need to achieve a sense of well-being and happiness.

Sr. Denise Marie? Who?

Who is Sr. Denise Marie? I would not be surprised if you are wondering since upon my arrival at Saint Anselm Parish on December 1st, life has been anything but ordinary and normal for this newcomer on your staff. I must admit, it has also been a bit challenging for me these past several months. With all the uncertainty that presently exists in our lives and in our world, I often pray, “God, when will I ever come to better know, love, serve, and share ministry with the wonderful generations of people at St. Anselm Parish?”

Some of you may remember that I introduced myself at all the weekend Masses in the season of Advent, which seems like forever ago. Throughout December and January, I tried my best to meet as many of you as possible at daily and weekend Masses and at parish meetings and events. It was a blessing to meet our youth, teachers and staff who make up St. Anselm school and PSR, as well as so many of you who call St. Anselm Parish “home.”

I look forward to the day when we will once again be able to fill our church, parish meeting rooms, and classrooms, when we will not need to social distance and wear masks, and when we are able to get to know each other better. It will be pure joy to shake your hands, give you a hug, and share a smile that you will be able to see. Until this happens, I am grateful for the opportunity in upcoming bulletins to answer the question, “Who is Sr. Denise Marie?” Next week I will share about my younger days before I entered religious life.

On this Father’s Day Weekend, I give thanks to God for my own Dad, who is one of my heroes. You will be hearing more about George Vlna and my mother, Julia Vlna in next week's bulletin.

I would like to end with this prayer for my father, for all fathers and grandfathers in our parish, and for all who have played a fatherly role in our lives. Happy Father's Day!

Love, Sr. Denise Marie

Remember O Lord our fathers and grandfathers and all those who have played a paternal role on our journey.

Remember those men who have influenced our lives and been strong witnesses of faith, perseverance, courage and tenderness.

Be with fathers who have seen their children grow and prosper and with fathers who have been entrusted with the life of their first child.

Be with fathers who struggle to provide, with those who are healthy and those who are ill.

Be with fathers who, in imitation of St. Joseph, have entrusted their personal care to their families and rely on your grace.

Welcome into Your Kingdom those fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, and uncles, who have been called “home.” Surround them in light, life, and peace!

Bless all men called to be a father and in your mercy strengthen them in their vocation and remind them of your own Fatherly presence.

We ask this in the Name of Jesus, our Lord and Brother, and through the power of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen!

Notes from the Principal...

It is hard to believe that this school year is over and we are on our summer break. The last two months were certainly challenging, but with the hard and creative work of our teachers and the amazing support of our parents, we prevailed. I try to look for positives, even when it is difficult to see past the negative! During this last quarter, even though we were not “together” in school, our students still managed to make us proud.

Let me share a bit of happy news...

The Young Entrepreneurs “Pitch Challenge” is an event open to numerous schools in North East Ohio. Students must “invent” a new product, and then produce a one minute commercial to sell that product. I am proud to say (remember...this is our first time competing in this event) that two of our students, fourth grader Michael Keresztesy and fifth grader Sofia Finomore, were chosen as finalists. As finalists, they have already won $25, a one month supply of Coca-Cola beverages, an Idea Journal, and a $20 Chipotle gift card. CONGRATULATIONS!

Five of our 7th graders. Giancarlo Cefaratti, Giuliana Cefaratti, Katherine Kent, Christiana Paul and Gavin Sheppard competed virtually in the Akron District Science Day. All students received a "Superior" rating and are moving on to the state competition, which is usually held at The Ohio State University in May. Special congratulations to Giancarlo Cefaratti. He won 2nd Place in the Animal Science & Plant Science Category. Placing as a 7th grader is very difficult. Each category has students from grades 6-12 competing against each other.

Two of our upper hall students have been “certified” in wellness programs that have been offered to them digitally under the guidance of Mrs. Hribar. Congratulations to Shannon Shea (8th grade) who earned a “Certificate of Completion” in the “Mental Wellness Basics Program”. This is a digital program that equips students with skills for life-long mental wellness. Congratulations to Shannon Shea (8th grade) and Christiana Paul (7th grade) who both were “certified” through the “Healthier Me: Middle School Program” which is a digital program to help students make informed decisions when it comes to nutrition.

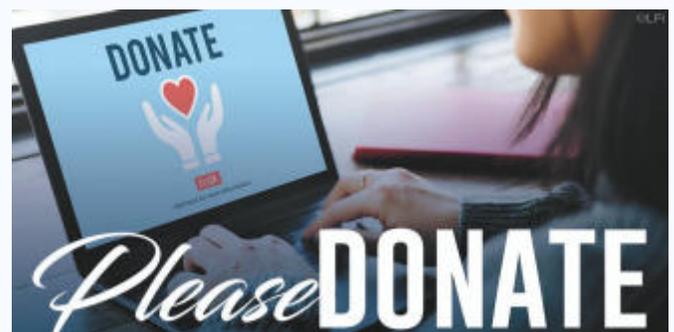

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus knows that the challenges a disciple of the Gospel will face in the world are real. He tells all of us point blank, “Do not be afraid.” There are many things we can fear as we attempt to live the Gospel: unpopularity, being rebuked, rejection, anger, being challenged, having to defend ourselves, standing alone, insecurity, failure, and even death. Many folks know that their faith calls them to live life more deliberately and radically but are cowards when it comes to putting it into practice. We easily justify sticking with the “acceptable” norms with which we are accustomed. These only serve to keep us stuck and mired in mediocrity. The Gospel — given flesh by the very presence of Christ — seeks to stretch, challenge, and change us. We do not have to fear anything, even death. Sometimes, living with our fears brings us a sadly disordered sense of comfort. Maybe what we really fear above all else is change.

Hello everyone! My name is Cameron Popik,

I am a seminarian at Saint Mary's Graduate Seminary in Wickliffe, on the same property as the Fest and Borromeo College Seminary, discerning and preparing to be a priest. I will be living at Saint Anselm's this summer and throughout the 2020-21 academic year. I grew up on the OTHER side; the west side in Strongsville where my parents raised the ten Popik kids (I'm #4, so I learned how to both give orders, as well as take orders. Mostly the latter though). Naturally, when you grow up with that many kids in a normal sized house, you spend as much time in the yard as possible, so we played a lot of sports, rain or shine or snow (I'm sure you'll hear about it in the homily references). When I moved into Saint Anselm's a couple weeks ago I rejoiced that there was a soccer field, basketball court, baseball diamond and plenty of space on the property! After graduating from Ave Maria University, thoughts of seminary and being a priest became more and more frequent. I met with my pastor, and continued praying about it. After only one wonderful year in the working world, I applied and entered Saint Mary's Seminary. Five years go quickly when you are at peace; my three classmates and I are preparing to be ordained Transitional Deacons on August 7th! I will then have the opportunity to serve all of you here at Saint Anselm's for the year, enter into diaconate service alongside Deacon Bob, see what being a Priest means from Father Sweany, learn about parish administration and ministry from the parish staff, and see how God is working in this community as I get to know you. I hope you will introduce yourself (maybe a few times!). Offer guidance to me as I continue to be formed into the servant God created me to be, and pray for my classmates and I as we journey toward Diaconate and Priesthood ordinations. May the peace of Christ be with each of you!

“There is no greater blessing than growing up with a father's love”

Every one of us is a product of what we have learned from those who have taught us, the people we have encountered in our lives and how they have influenced us. The Hebrew Scripture helped to form the foundation of Jesus' spiritual life. He also had the influence of Mary, Joseph and God the father and the people in His community to form His character.

For us, we have similar things that influence us. We are spiritually strengthened by Word and Sacrament. There are so many people who have helped to make us who we are by their loving influence on us. Today we give recognition and thanks to all those people in our lives that are fatherly figures for us - fathers, grandfathers, uncles, brothers, teachers, priests, deacons, etc. Let us be thankful to God the father for His help and for the many helpers He provides for us and for all they do. Today, make a point of saying ‘thank you’ to your father and to those who are a fatherly influence in your life. To all fathers and for all who act in a fatherly capacity - HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!!

Let us always be aware of God's loving presence and the blessings He provides through those fatherly figures that are part of our life.

May the Lord bless you today and every day.

Deacon Bob
