Notes from Father Tom...

I hope you all had a Happy Easter. Thanks to so many of you who worshipped with us either virtually or in person. It was so good to see so many of you for the first time since the pandemic. There were very many young people at the Vigil. Many of the Holy Week Services were simplified because of Covid but we still celebrated the Triduum. Christ is Risen. He is Risen Indeed.

Monday evening Bishop Malesic will be here for the first time. He will be celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation. Seating is limited to the candidates, their parents and sponsor. God bless those who are being confirmed.

Deacon Cameron will be ordained to the priesthood on May 15. He will be told what his assignment is on April 21 which just happens to be the feast of Saint Anselm. Deacon Cameron is one of four who will be ordained. He will celebrate Mass here on Saturday June 5 at 4pm.

First Reconciliation and First Communion are coming soon. First Reconciliation is April 19 and 20. First Communion is April 24 and May 1.

Since the pandemic continues, we still need to be cautious. Attendance being up is a good thing. Remember social distancing, especially when leaving after Mass.

We are moving ahead with two big capital projects, the replacement of one of the main air conditioners for the church and the boiler project. We abated the asbestos in the boiler room while the children were out for Easter so that we could begin boiler replacement as soon as school is over. The boilers were installed in 1963 when the school was built. I don't want to say that was a while ago but I was in high school in 1963.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Eye Has Not Seen

They say seeing is believing. But if you've ever ordered a pair of pants online, you know that's not always the case. Whatever the photos promise us, what looked like a perfectly nice shade of navy blue on our computer screens comes in the mail as an unusual shade of blue green that only appears in the giant box of Crayola crayons.

The Apostle Thomas, who couldn't bring himself to accept that Jesus had risen from the dead without seeing him, is such an utterly relatable figure in the Gospels. Thomas is still reeling from a loss — not only of his good friend but his Lord, who was taken prisoner and crucified before his eyes. Thomas is guarding himself. He's not believing the hype. He's going to be the only judge of what is real and what is fiction.

Would any of us be any different? We've all had those thoughts. Can we believe it all — Jesus, salvation history, the Eucharist — when we haven't seen it with our own two eyes?

That's when we need to remember that those two eyes were absolutely positive they had ordered a pair of navy blue pants.

It's easy for us to sit back stroking our chins in judgment at Thomas, "you didn't believe the testimony of your friends!" But do we accept the testimony of our friends? The saints, the popes, the Church fathers themselves?

Sometimes the things that are most worthy of believing can't be seen with the naked eye.

Notes from Sister Noel ...

This Monday night is the Confirmation of an adult and our eighth graders both in our parish school and area schools. It is always inspiring to see young people ready to receive the gifts of the Spirit and value their relationship with God.

Through evaluations of themselves, parents and sponsors, I have been edified by the growth of the students. They have appreciated their time with their sponsors as well as been faithful to religion sessions.

They have come to know the importance of service to others and an awareness that their particular gifts are meant to be given to the community around them, their families, their school, their church and beyond.

They have taken responsibility in accepting Confirmation as a way of commitment to the church. Their relationship with God has grown as they have come to understand the importance of decision making in light of God's Will for them.

I have witnessed their appreciation of their parents, teachers, sponsors and other adults who have been part of this year or the past years in religious formation. It brings me hope for the future as well as faith in these young people as they take the next step in their journey of faith.

I, too, wish to thank them for their openness to this special time in their life, and pray that the Holy Spirit's many invitations to come will be responded to in the same way they are responding to the call of this sacramental moment.

Thank you to all who have journeyed along with them, especially in the past year. Let us pray for all of them and their families.

Sister Noel Marra OSU

THEOLOGY • ON • THE • ROCKS - WEST FOR ADULTS 40 & OVER

Monday, April 12 – 7:00pm
VIA Zoom – Bishop Roger Gries,
Bishop Emeritus of Cleveland
Topic: Understanding Religious Orders

Benedictine, Carmelites, Dominicans, Jesuits, Franciscans ... and this barely skims the surface of the religious orders. We've heard the names, but if someone asked you to explain who they are or what the difference is, could you answer? Well, we've asked Bishop Gries to help us unravel what the religious orders are and why there are no many different orders. Join us for this enlightening evening with Bishop Gries. ### A Message from Birthright Geauga

Birthright Geauga would like to extend our gratitude for your support of Birthright. We could not help the families here in Geauga County without the support of those such as yourself. We are able to bless so many moms and children because of the support we receive from our community. St. Anselm still welcomed Birthright during this past year even though many churches were unable to. If you would like more information about Birthright Geauga, please visit our website www.birthright.org or on fb, Birthright Geauga Inc. If there is anyone in need of the services we provide they can call our office at (440) 286-9711 or visit us at 209 Center St. Chardon Monday-Friday 11-4.

Communion Fasting

Question:

Do we need to fast for one hour before Mass, or one hour before communion?

Answer:

The practice of fasting before receiving the Eucharist is a centuries-old act of devotion that was once very different than it is today. In the 1917 Code of Canon Law, for example, anyone who wanted to receive the Eucharist had to fast from midnight until the time of communion (even water and medications were forbidden). Over the following decades, the rules for the eucharistic fast were relaxed, first by Pope Pius XII and, later, by Pope Saint Paul VI.

The current Code of Canon Law (1983) states very clearly: "A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before holy communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine" (Canon 919, §1). And, in the case of those who are ill and the elderly, the rules are even more accommodating, "The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour" (Canon 919, §3).

So, if we strictly follow the "letter of the law," the fast is calculated from the time of Holy Communion and not the start of Mass. However, when we remember why we fast — it is a reminder of the deeper hungers of the spirit that our physical thirst or hunger symbolize — we see that the issue is much bigger than simply fulfilling what is called for by Church Law and tradition. Joining fasting to our prayers and reflection before Mass is an opportunity to really center ourselves and to prepare our minds, hearts, and bodies to welcome the One we receive in the Eucharist.

2nd SUNDAY OF EASTER

CCA Grief Support April 18th "In-Office" at 3:00pm (RSVP required) and "Virtual" at 5:00pm:

Catholic Cemeteries Association continues with our free monthly grief support groups on April 18th in two formats: In-Office(3pm) and Virtually(5pm). Meetings are open discussion format, surrounding a monthly topic or whatever is on your heart. They do not build off each other so you can stop in any month and fit right in. If you are not yet able to talk about your grief, come and listen and be in the presence of those who understand. The April topics are "Mother's Day Grief" and "Renewed Hope in the Midst of Grief". We offer a comfortable, private, and safe environment where you are free to explore your grief. Our Grief Support Groups meet the 3rd Sunday of every month.

In-Office 3-4pm at six locations with limited seating for social distancing. Meeting sites are sanitized and seating is arranged so everyone is at a safe distance. An RSVP is required to attend so we can plan appropriate social distancing. We require all in attendance to wear protective facial coverings. To RSVP or for questions, please contact Rhonda at rabrams@clecem.org or 216-930-4866.

Calvary Cemetery, Cleveland
All Saints Cemetery, Northfield

Virtual 5-6pm via Zoom. Sign-up for at <http://bit.ly/ccavirtualgriefsupportgroup> to receive login information and the handout materials or contact Rhonda at rabrams@clecem.org or at 216-930-4866.

Parenting Pointers

April is Child Abuse Prevention month. Of course you don't abuse your own children, but when parents are stressed, living in poverty, addicted to drugs, etc., they may take it out on a child. Think of one way you can support a parent in need this month.

Marriage Moments

What's the moon and Ramadan got to do with us? Ramadan is a month of reflection and celebration for Muslims. This year it begins on April 12 as the new moon starts to appear as a sliver. Whether or not you are Muslim why not pick one day to pray together and one day to celebrate your love this week.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 11, 2021*2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. "Mercy is the heart of God," Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart has been used to point to the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain us. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping, transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. It is God's mercy that allows blood to flow through our veins. It is God's mercy that forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true. God's mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope," Pope Francis continues. God's all forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ's resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we then find within us a strong confidence to accept life's imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure in new life. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn't matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do tomorrow and what we learn along the way. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need to do so. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters. There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had! The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks in his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering and death can trample over and destroy God's mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us. Breathe in God's mercy, allow the wind of God's presence to kiss all of your sins and caress all of your fears. Exhale peace.
