WELCOME

We are glad you are here!
If you would like to join the parish,
or if you are not Catholic and have questions and would like to learn about the faith, please call the parish office.

Notes from Father Tom...

Why do we do what we do? I am down to my last two weekends as pastor. We realized that a reception after the 9AM Mass would probably run into the 11AM Mass. So we arranged for Father Mike Woost to celebrate the 11AM Mass this week, and scheduled the reception after the 9AM Mass. Next week there will be a reception after the 4PM and 11AM Masses since nothing follows them. I hope this is as clear as mud.

I started writing this column the old fashioned way because my computer is acting up and I am tired of fighting with it. Some days machines just do not want to work with me. I think I might have to keep a hammer near the computer just as a deterrent.

Father Chris Cox has been moving some things in, so rest assured he really is coming. He has a lot of energy and is excited about getting started. He wants to get a puppy. He is more ambitious than I am.

The Fall Fundraiser is coming quickly. I plan to attend and hope it sells out again. I was with a group last evening that will be getting a table. This is the best way to do it. Get a table together and have a great time. Bid on a vacation spot or other great items. It is a good party at Guido's new party room.

I have another column in the bulletin today. This one talks about pastors. I hope it is helpful.

Father Tom

Before I go ...Just a few thoughts that I think are important.Third thought in a weekly series of thoughts

Father Christopher Cox will be the fourth pastor of Saint Anselm. Monsignor Thomas Kelly, Father John Anderson, Father Thomas Sweany, Father Christopher Cox. This is somewhat like a relay race where one pastor hands the baton over to the next. Each one takes their turn in leading and working with the people. You really cannot compare pastors because they were here at different times with different congregations, but they all did what they could at a particular time in history. The Church of 1961 is far different than the Church of 2021. My point is simple. Pastors work with people in different eras and the important thing is that we as pastors each do what we think is important.

If someone were to ask us what we thought was important in our tenure as pastor, it probably would not be what you might think. I think of Msgr. Kelly as founding the parish. Someone might associate me with building the church. But I think both of us would cite being there for people when they needed us as the important thing. Pastoring always involves people. Individual acts of ministry are important and significant.

With a relay race, the end result is important. Who ran their part of the race the fastest is not the issue. Each does his part with the skills he has. The same is true with pastoring. We all do our part for the greater honor and glory of God.

Father Tom

Pet Blessing

Father Chris Cox will be blessing your pets on Sunday, October 3 at 1:00 p.m. in the parking lot in front of the church.

The members of Carmona Caravan, Order of the Alhambra, wish to thank all of our parishioners for their generosity last weekend. Through your kindness, $1,675 was raised to provide assistance to developmentally disabled children and adults.

Notes from Sister Noel ...

This weekend begins our faith formation program for elementary and junior high students. Over 200 children are part of our St. Anselm P.S.R. program. Our attendance is stable for another year. Yes, we have larger groups moving on to high school, but with the entry of a good number of first graders we are still over 200. That's amazing!

I have already had a meeting with all parents of gr.1-8 to start the year. It was live-streamed so I was able to give out the new directives about our Covid-19 protocol as well as changes in drop-offs and pick-up of students. I hope the live-stream presentation which is archived would be helpful in making sure we are all on the same page (so to speak). Just go to stanselm.org and you can watch the opening meeting.

Catechists and students will be blessed this weekend in their classrooms by Father Sweany. This will be our present year Catechetical Sunday acknowledgment of our journey of faith beginning for 2021-22.

Our PSR homeschoolers will be picking up their materials and meeting with me to be ready to take on the new year of prayer and learning. There are about 20 students. This is a change from the 42 who chose it last year. Both children and parents wanted to get back to the classroom. Our catechists also desired to be back.

Pray for all the catechists: Sandy Onyshko, Madalena Cocco, Elizabeth Pona, Sr. Judy Bucco SND, Christine Rowles, Elise McBride, Susan Teeter, Joanna Lewis, Janet Mayne, Evelyn Fazekas and Greg Grisez.

Many thanks go to the aides, office assistants and parents volunteering through the year in other capacities.

SEASONS OF HOPE

(A prayerful support group for the grieving)

Our Lord assures us that those who mourn are blessed and shall be comforted. Each of us grieves the loss of a loved one in a different way. As we mourn, the pain, sadness and emptiness may seem overwhelming.

Seasons of Hope is a bereavement support group for anyone who has lost a significant person in their life. Rooted in Catholic Tradition, Seasons of Hope gatherings will enable one to give voice to their own unique journey of grief and will convey God's consolation and healing through scripture, prayer, reflection, and sharing.

Our first Seasons of Hope will begin on Tuesday, September 21st from 6:30-8:00 p.m. We will be meeting for 6 Tuesdays in the Hospitality Room located in the Parish Office. If you or others you know are grieving and could benefit from a loving and supportive community, I hope you/they will come to Seasons of Hope. To register, please call the parish office at 440-729-9575, sign up at the desk in the Baptistry or email me, Sister Denise Marie, at srdenisemarie@aol.com by Sunday, September 19th. I look forward to hearing from you.
