30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?"
The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52 and would like to learn about the faith, please call the parish office.

Notes From Father Chris

"The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy." (Psalm 126)

This past week, I had the opportunity to not only meet with the parish staff, but also with our parish pastoral council. We spent a good amount of time in the meeting looking at parish life. We talked about what we're doing well here at the parish, and we envisioned a few ideas and projects for the near, intermediate, and distant future. My first weekend here, I said that one of my great hopes is to have cars in the parking lot from sunrise to sunset because of activities here on campus. I truly believe that with the help of our staff, our various councils, and all of you – we can make this happen. I feel truly blessed to be part of this holy, active, and giving family.

Speaking of holiness, you'll hear me say from time to time that our primary mission is always going to be prayer. Our greatest form of that is the Mass. There's no other experience here on earth wherein the veil between heaven and earth is the thinnest. With that being said, I'm so very grateful for those who have been volunteering as liturgical ministers. As you might have noticed as well, we could always use more volunteers who might feel called to various liturgical ministries. In the coming weeks, you'll see more information regarding becoming a server, lector, extraordinary minister of holy communion, mass coordinator, choir member, usher, parking lot traffic coordinator, art and environment, etc. Please pray about your experience of the liturgy and ask the Lord how He may be calling you or your family to help.

This weekend is World Mission Sunday. Christians are still being persecuted in various parts of the world. Consider dedicating a family rosary or personal prayer to our missionaries around the world.

May God Bless You,

Fr. Chris

Happenings in our School

At Saint Anselm School we are blessed with talented and hard-working teachers who strive to “go above and beyond” to make learning both meaningful and fun!

An example of this is our Kindergarten teacher, Miss Hannah Zannetti. Miss Zannetti took a children’s book, “Miss Nelson is Missing” by Harry Allard and brought it to life. It is a story about an unruly kindergarten class whose teacher (Miss Nelson) goes missing, so her students are visited by a very strict substitute teacher, Miss Viola Swamp. Instead of just presenting this book in a traditional way, Miss Zannetti unexpectedly appeared at school dressed as Viola Swamp and was the class’s substitute for the day. “Miss Swamp” (A.K.A. Miss Zannetti) spent the morning working with the children to solve the mystery of the missing Miss Zannetti, and happily, their teacher “reappeared” in the afternoon. The students had a great time reading, writing and working together to bring their teacher back. I am certain that this is a story they will never forget. Thank you to our teachers for instructing our students, but also for making memories happen.

Susan Kelly

Notes from Sister Noel ...

This past Monday, we live-streamed our evening session for the parents of Grade 2 students. The meeting, although providing an overview for the year for parents, focused mainly on the sacrament of Reconciliation.

The three main parts of the presentation that night included Parent Perspective (Sr. Noel), Classroom Perspective (Megan Guban/Elizabeth Pona) and Appreciation of the Sacrament (Fr. Chris).

In my part of the evening, I spoke of the many ways parents can be helpful in walking this part of their child’s faith journey. They are the ones who know their child the best and can watch for signs of their child’s growth in forgiveness.

The catechist/teacher spoke about the curriculum being followed as well as ways parents can use the home resources in an effective way.

Fr. Chris shares his own experience of Reconciliation and the grace of the sacrament in impacting our lives. His presentation was videoed ahead of time and was sent as a link to parents’ email. Father had Parish Council at the same time as our meeting and could not bi-locate. To view Fr. Chris’ talk on Reconciliation, go to our website, www.stanselm.org.

The Parent Evening for First Communion has been archived and can be viewed on our St. Anselm website. (stanselm.org) Anyone can tap into it if interested.

I am getting use to talking to an empty church space at these meetings but sense all those who are watching from home. It makes me imagine them as I do the Community of Saints, the people who are not physically seen but who we sense are with us. They, too, are watching from home, a lasting one.

With November coming soon, it brings with it All Souls’ Day and All Saints’ Day. I now have a new way of reflecting on both days! You, too?

Sister Noel Marie OSU

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Rite Of Christian Initiation of AdultsBLESSED ART THOU AMONG WOMEN

Sunday October 24th, the RCIA team and inquirers meet Mary, Mother of God, Mother of the Church and Our Mother.

The role that Mary plays for us is intimately connected to Mary's role in our Church and is inseparable from her union with Christ and flows directly from it.

How comforting this is to us, because the Mother of God, MARY, is also one of us. She is called our tainted nature's solitary boast which means that there is hope for each one of us to follow her lead into sanctity and holiness.

And so together we pray: HOLY MARY, MOTHER OF GOD, PRAY FOR US SINNERS, NOW AND AT THE HOUR OF OUR DEATH. AMEN.

Feast of All Souls

The commemoration of our faithful departed will be celebrated at our Feast of All Souls Day Mass at 7pm on Tuesday, November 2. Everyone is invited to come this evening to celebrate, remember, and pray for their beloved deceased. We extend a special invitation to those of you from St. Anselm who lost a loved one this past year. During the Mass, his/her name will be remembered and prayed for by name. At this time, you will be invited to take a lit candle from the sanctuary steps. This candle represents your loved one's memory that continues to live on through you.

At this liturgy, the Book of the Dead will be set out in the Church by the tabernacle and will be displayed throughout the month of November. During November please visit to inscribe in the book the names of all deceased loved ones you wish to remember. We now have a permanent Book of the Dead, so if you wrote the names of your loved ones in this book in 2019 or 2020, you do not need to write their names again since they are already included. We hope you will be able to join us to celebrate and remember those God has called home to Himself. This 7pm Mass on November 2nd will be livestreamed for those not able to join us at St. Anselm Church. If you have any questions, call Sr. Denise Marie at 440-729-5130.

May all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The Kindergartener

A Kindergarten teacher was observing her classroom as the children drew pictures. The teacher would occasionally walk around and see each child's artwork. As she approached one little girl who was working especially hard, she asked what the drawing was.

The little girl told her: "I'm drawing God!"

"But sweetie," the teacher replied, "no one actually knows what God looks like."

Automatically, the little girl continued drawing and said, "well, they certainly will in a minute!"
