From the Desk of Father Chris ….

"And Mary said: My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.'" (Lk. 1:46-47)

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption on Monday. Normally this is celebrated as a Holy Day of Obligation, but because it falls on a Monday, the obligation to attend Mass is lifted. Even with the obligation lifted, Solemnities as the highest celebrations of Mass provide us faithful with an abundance of graces. We'll celebrate the Solemnity in the Church at the 8:30AM Mass.

On Monday this week our teachers also report to school. I'm looking forward to seeing our school staff and spending some time in prayer with them. Consider praying for them and our students as they look forward to this coming school year.

This past week we also introduced our 1st St. Anselm flag football team on the property to practice. This 3rd grade team will be practicing on Tuesdays and Thursdays by the baseball field in the back. Seeing football and hearing marching bands (we can hear West Geauga Marching Band from the parish) makes it feel like fall is just around the corner. Say a prayer for all of our returning students and instructors at all levels of education.

Saint Spotlight of the Week:
The Blessed Virgin Mary

As part of the "Our Story" theme of the year, I'd like to highlight a Saint whom we celebrate during the upcoming week. Who better to start with than the Blessed Virgin Mary? We learn much about Mary from Scripture, especially from the Gospel of Luke. Out of all time and space, she is chosen out of all women to be the Mother of Jesus, the 2nd person of the Trinity. But it takes a "yes" or "fiat" from Mary for all of this to take place. Mary still had free-will. But as we'll hear in the Gospel reading from the Assumption, she declares that God "had looked upon His handmaid's lowliness; behold, from now on will all ages call me blessed." (Lk. 1:48) Like Mary, may we seek to do God's will this week.

Notes from Sister Noel …

August is a time of lightning bugs, crickets, corn on the cob, fresh peaches and let's not forget zucchini. It is also the month in which the Assumption of Mary is celebrated in the Italian neighborhoods everywhere.

Even though my family originally lived in Holy Redeemer Parish, we celebrated there and on Murray Hill with the neighbors of Holy Rosary. I will bet many of you did likewise and if not, there is still time to experience the procession of the statue of Mary through the street and watch those who pin money to her gown to honor her.

The event weaves the love we have for the Blessed Mother with our deep love of community and celebration. Have you celebrated the event in your own special way? I am sure it all begins at Mass and then follows with a meal at home, at a park or a restaurant sometime during the day or night.

As a child, I had my own devotion to Mary. I learned from the Sisters who taught me in CCD the importance of a May altar in my house or even in my bedroom. I thought that was an amazing idea! I loved picking flowers and placing my rosary at the foot of my small statue of Mary.

As I grew a little older, it was the visit to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes in Euclid. I was surprised to see people gathered on a Sunday at an outdoor Mass. I loved seeing the statue of Mary, bigger than life, near the side of a hill with fresh water flowing forth. People would use the water to bless themselves and say a prayer to Jesus' mother and ours. I still like to take time to visit the shrine on a Sunday or just a quiet weekday.

Well, it's summer, it's a good time to honor Mary. Give it some thought how you will do it this summer. If you can't do it on August 15, do it any day in August. And who says you can do it only once?

Sister Noel Marra OSU

SEASONS OF HOPE
(A prayerful support group for the bereaved)

Our Lord assures us that those who mourn are blessed and shall be comforted. Each of us grieves the loss of a loved one in a different way. As we mourn, the pain, sadness and emptiness may seem overwhelming. Working through grief is hard work. From experience, we know the journey can be made easier when it is shared with others.

Seasons of Hope is a bereavement support group for anyone who has lost a significant person in their life. Rooted in Catholic Tradition, Seasons of Hope gatherings will enable one to give voice to their own unique journey of grief and will convey God's consolation and healing through scripture, prayer, reflection, and sharing.

Our first Seasons of Hope will begin on Tuesday, September 6th from 6:00-7:30 p.m. We will be meeting for six Tuesdays in the Hospitality Room located in the Parish Office. If you or others you know are grieving and could benefit from a loving and supportive community, we hope you/ they will come to Seasons of Hope. To register, please call the parish office at 440-729-9575 or email srdenisemarie@stanselm.org by Monday, August 29th. We look forward to hearing from you.

Love,
Sr. Denise Marie
and
Mimi Tomaric
