From the Desk of Father Chris

"Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen." (Prayer from St. Blaise throat blessing)

I want to begin this week's column with a heartfelt "Thank You!" to the anonymous individuals who helped to shovel the entrance of the Church last week. As all of us experienced, as beautiful as the snow was last Sunday, it came heavy and quick. Before our maintenance men could arrive to help shovel and salt, a few generous parishioners spent their time shoveling some of the pathways. This is a great testimony of the great love of our people for St. Anselm Parish.

Speaking of blessings, this week we will have several opportunities for additional blessings. On Wednesday after the 7pm Mass, we'll have our regular 1st Wednesday of the Month Anointing of the Sick. Do you have an upcoming procedure or are you recovering from a lengthy illness or surgery? Consider coming to celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing with us. Our Thursday 8:30AM Mass will be held in the Church this week for the celebration of The Presentation of the Lord (aka Candlemas Day). It is customary that many of the Church's candles are blessed this day for use throughout the year including our altar, processional, and votive candles. This year I'm inviting anyone who would like to have their own candles blessed to bring them to Mass with you on Thursday and place them along the Sanctuary steps in front of the Altar. Please be sure to LABEL them so you know which are yours. You're welcome to take your candle home after Mass is over. On Friday, to conclude Catholic Schools Week, we'll be celebrating the Feast of St. Blaise. You can read a bit about his story in this week's "Saint Spotlight of the Week". Associated with his Feast Day is the annual throat blessing. Join us for the School Mass on Friday of this week (Feb 3rd) at 8:30 to get your throat blessed.

Speaking of even more blessings, if you're here as a first time visitor: Welcome!!! We're glad to have you for this special weekend featuring the beginning of Catholic Schools Week and a special Trobar medieval ensemble concert. As a reminder, tours of the school and our open house are after the 9am and 11am Sunday Masses. At 3pm in the Church, Rosemary (our music director) and a special ensemble will hold a concert not heard anywhere else in northeast Ohio. I'm told we're in for a beautiful treat of prayerful music.

Saint Spotlight of the Week:
St. Blaise

Most of us know St. Blaise because of the blessing of the throats that happens on his Feast Day each year. Not many of us know how he became the Patron Saint of throats. While serving as Bishop of Armenia in the fourth century, a desperate mother came to the Bishop with her son who appeared to be choking. Similar to those who came directly to Jesus Christ in desperate situations, this mother didn't know what else to do but to seek out this man noted for his holiness. Without hesitation, the Bishop took two lit candles and crossed them. Upon praying over the child, the choking immediately stopped. On the Feast of St. Blaise, we pray through his intercession that God may deliver us from every disease of the throat and every other illness. Years later, this faithful bishop would be compelled to sacrifice to pagan idols, and when he refused, he would be martyred. Veneration for this holy man of God would begin shortly after his martyrdom. As a reminder, our 8:30AM school Mass this week will contain a blessing of throats in honor of St. Blaise.

Notes from Sister Noel

Was not last Sunday a surprise performance of sudden and intense snow? I arrived at 8:15a.m. surrounded by cold winds and dry pavement. I left at 11:15 a.m. with colder winds and deep snow on the sidewalks and cars. Was I in another state? Well, yes, the state of confusion!

In that moment adjustments to my day began, no longer heading to see my brother at Light of Hearts Villa, I headed for our house and promptly cleaned off my car. Now I had time to bake cinnamon muffins as a surprise for our afternoon break. The snow brought me the gift of time. Sunday PSR needed to be cancelled, too.

It reminded me of God saying, "Behold I make all things new!" I am usually heartened by the message while I read it but do I find it just as life giving when I am called to change or alter my plans? This past Sunday was an easy one for me but that's not true for all our unexpected moments. This one gave me time. Other ones may ask me to give time.

Like when parents get a call their child has been injured or a relative who suddenly needs help or an employer calls who may need us to come in because of another employee's absence. How well do we handle these unexpected requests?

The unexpected times may be graces on our life journey to gradually transform us into more flexible and caring adults. God is making us new as well.. Slowly but surely God is molding us into the persons He wants us to be.

Year End Statements are available this weekend. We are trying something new this year due to high postage costs and slow/lost mail lately. On Sunday, January 29 Cleveland's medieval music ensemble Trobár will be presenting Daughters of Light, featuring guest artists Rosemary Heredos and Nadia Tarnawski. This performance will take place at 3PM at Saint Anselm Church, and will be free to all parishioners.

About the program:

Medieval nuns lived out their theology in a very tangible manner, literally setting themselves and their lives apart for the Lord they awaited. In Daughters of Light, we explore the visceral experience of the divine embodied by these women. The program particularly features the music and visions of two abbesses, the ninth-century Byzantine-Greek Kassia, and the twelfth-century German Hildegard von Bingen.

Suggested donation:

Adults $20 / students $10 / children under 18 and parishioners of Saint Anselm free
