"(Faith is) a light in the darkness, help in sickness, blessing in tribulations, paradise in the crucifixion, and life amid death." (St. Ludovico of Casoria)

This weekend we begin the 5th week of Lent. We're getting close to Holy Week, as our Gospel for this weekend hints at the reality of Jesus's resurrection as he raises Lazarus from the dead. In this story, we also get the shortest line in all of scripture "and Jesus wept." It reminds us that while Jesus is 100% Divine, he also is 100% human. Because God came to be one of us, God can truly be empathetic towards humanity.

As a parish community, we've been journeying through the 7 Deadly Sins and 7 Lively Virtues this Lent. For our 5th Week of Lent our focus turns towards avoiding the Deadly Sin of Envy and working towards the Lively Virtue of Gratitude. Our Social Media and well-connected world has often had us focusing outside of ourselves on what others have or appear to have. Envy blinds us to the reality of the blessings that we do have in our lives. Gratitude slows us down to refocus on God's blessings for us in our lives. Perhaps this week, we take the time to show more appreciation for the people we have in our lives.

It was great to see many of you at our 1st parish XLT this past Monday. Thank you once again to Sr. Denise Marie and Mike Picha for arranging this beautiful prayer experience for us.

Speaking of prayer experiences, as we approach Holy Week, pay close attention to the plethora of opportunities listed in this bulletin, on our website, and on the parish social media. If you're looking for an opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, on Tuesday evening (March 28th) at 7pm, we'll be joining our cluster parish, St. Francis in Gates Mills, for our Lenten Communal Penance Service. This is a great opportunity for Confession leading up to Holy Week.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Chris

Saint Spotlight of the Week:
St. Ludovico of Casoria

St. Ludovico is a Saint of the 19th century. He began his adulthood as a cabinet maker, but soon felt the call to join the Franciscans in 1832. He was noted for his intelligence, as his early years in the order had him teaching mathematics, physics, and chemistry to other members of the Order. In 1847, Ludovico had a mystical experience which would change the course of his life. He would completely dedicate his life to serving the poorest of the poor and the infirmed. He once said, "Christ's love has wounded my heart." This love prompted him to great acts of charity. In the final 9 years of his life, he would endure times of great illness. It prompted him to write a spiritual testament and to offer much of his suffering on behalf of others in prayer. St. Ludovico, pray for us!

Notes from Sister Noel

Through the years we who have practiced our faith during the special season of Lent have sometimes found consolation in its prayers and rituals.

Do you have a memory of Lent from your past? Was it a childhood memory of something learned? This is where it all began, that is, our understanding of Jesus in our lives.

Lent calls us to a slower pace. It sounds good (and it is good!) but we also resist slowing down, entering into silence for even a short amount of time. There is something about silence that makes us a bit uncomfortable. It may bring up memories that sadden or anger us. We are quick to shove them away but they persistently follow us to our next silent time.

Those memories call for our attention. They will continue to re-visit us until we take time to face them and pray to God to heal them. Have we spent too much time seeing them in a negative light? Maybe it is time to shine a positive light on them. What have we learned from them? Was that time a gift in some way?

How has it changed us? Are we more timid or more courageous? Has it made us less anxious, more daring? Are we now willing to enter into new relationships? Or have we gradually closed down?

If you are not satisfied in the way you encounter or run away from this recurring memory then ask God to help you, to heal you. Ask God to take you beyond where you are stuck. We can't do it alone. God doesn't expect that. Find a new approach. You may want to find a spiritual reading book, talk to a good friend or a possibly look for a spiritual director.

Is this Lent a time for you to find a new way to heal an old problem? Or to learn how to just let it go. Ask God to help you to just that. It is time for a change. We may find consolation once again.

Sister Noel Marra OSU
