"Love transforms one into what one loves."
~St. Catherine of Siena

This week on Monday we welcome Bishop Edward Malesic to St. Anselm for Confirmation. As you heard me mention at the end of Masses last weekend, the Easter Vigil is sort of the unofficial start to "Sacrament Season" for us. We celebrate Confirmation on April 24th, First Communion on May 6th, Priesthood Ordination on May 20th (at St. John Cathedral downtown), Permanent Deacon Ordination on May 6th, as well as a plethora of Weddings and Baptisms. It is a blessed time for our people and for our Church both in Chesterland and in Cleveland. I encourage all of us to keep those receiving these Sacraments in prayer.

This past week we began the long-anticipated work on the roofs of the parish center and rectory. I've personally had the opportunity to meet with some of the workers and look at some of the work up close. Projects like these are possible due to the continued generosity of our parish family. Thank you for all of your efforts over the years in helping not only build and upkeep our beautiful campus, but your help also supports the myriad of programs and prayer opportunities at our parish.

It was great this past week also celebrating the Feast of St. Anselm with our St. Anselm School and parishioners. This is always a beautiful celebration for our community. I ask for the intercession of St. Anselm daily for our parish.

Speaking of St. Anselm School, I'm happy to announce that we have more scholarship monies available to help families make Catholic Education a possibility. This is primarily thanks to the generosity towards our Support a Student Scholarship, which we've supported as a parish community for many years, but also due to the Angel Scholarship that was just announced last year. Our combined efforts raised over an additional $60,000. The State of Ohio also currently offers an Ed Choice Expansion scholarship to lower-income families. For instance, if a family of 4 has a combined family income of $60,000 or less per year, they would qualify for this scholarship. Ed Choice Expansion at our current tuition rate would make K-8 education at St. Anselm School free for those families. Don't hesitate to reach out to me or our parish school if you'd like to explore Catholic Education as a possibility for your family.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Chris

Notes from Sister Noel

Here we are at the weekend of Confirmation events:

Practice April 23 bringing together sponsors and candidates for 11:00 Mass, a light lunch and Confirmation practice.

Confirmation Mass (April 24) brings us to a culmination of preparation both in classroom and monthly home sessions with the sponsors and candidates. These sessions give one-to-one time for direct preparation in learning about the Holy Spirit's presence in their lives and the importance of careful moral decision making as young Catholics.

Moral decision-making happens throughout our days, whether we are conscious of it or not. This is where our dependence on the guidance of the Holy Spirit through understanding and implementation of the corporal and spiritual works of Mercy fit in. These along with the Commandments and Beatitudes guide us in bringing what we believe into our daily life actions. All of us need to be more conscious of our choices.

The Decision Point program used is directed by Matthew Kelly. Videos and an accompanying book allows for a common learning for sponsor and candidate to reflect, discuss and journal ways of bringing prayer and discernment to their daily decisions. This method helps to integrate their head and heart in the process. Jesus' way of living continues as their model to grow into their best selves as God has created them to be.

Parents and sponsors have evaluated the student's readiness for the sacrament as well as the students themselves. It is in reading all of this that we can say they are ready. Their letter to Father also conveys their service done and their readiness and desire for the sacrament.

We are grateful to all of the adults who have traveled this journey with our candidates. May we now celebrate with our total selves this moment of Confirmation, the coming of the Holy Spirit. Alleluia!

Sister Noel Murray OSU

Reminder that Rice Bowls will continue to be collected until May 6. Thank you to all of those who have already returned them!

Saint Spotlight of the Week:St. Catherine of Siena

There are currently four female Saints who hold the honorary title of Doctor of the Church and St. Catherine of Siena is one of them. She lived life full of love for Christ and His Church. She so ardently wanted to make people holy and help them seek Heaven. She was born as the 23rd child of 25 children. By the time she was born, half of her siblings had already sadly passed away. Medical care in the 1300s was not nearly what it is today. Her mother, like many mothers at that time, tried to match her up with several suitors to marry her off, but in protest, she cut her hair short. At a younger age, she knew that she wanted to dedicate her life to Christ as a nun. She became a Third Order Dominican, and attracted many followers due to her apparent holiness. She would write many letters encouraging prayers for the Pope and defense of the Crusaders defending the land against the Turks. She was a noted mystic, having a deep spirituality and connection to our Lord. In 1378, when the Church was divided in leadership, she spent time talking sense back into the factions. She knew that Christ was not divided and Christ's Church ought not to be divided either. Many of her writings are still in existence today. Like our Lord Jesus, she would die at the young age of 33. St. Catherine of Siena, Pray for us!

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

RCIA News

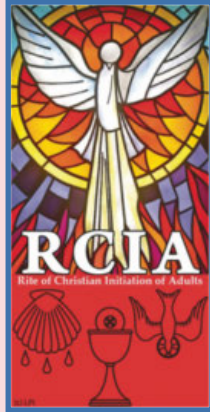

Today's Gospel is one of my favorites. In the story, two disciples are walking to a town near to Jerusalem. Jesus joins them but they fail to recognize him until he breaks bread with them. Their response to his surprising presence is: "were not our hearts burning within us as he spoke to us on the way?"

At the Easter Vigil, six men recognized the Lord in a new way. Their hearts were burning within them. They had the fire of the Spirit calling them for the past year or more. They responded to this call by spending time with the Lord every Sunday morning. They listened to his words and recognized him in the Scriptures, in the homily, in the prayers at Mass. They were fed by the many stories that we shared during our meetings, and their choice was affirmed as they met so many of the St. Anselm parishioners at coffee and doughnuts.

We welcome Daryl, Robert, Nick, Conner, George, Ionel into this loving community. Your greetings at the Vigil really overwhelmed them and your applause at the baptisms of Daryl and Robert spoke of the hearts they will meet every week as we celebrate the Lord's presence and the gift of God's grace in the Eucharist. My prayer for all of us is that we continue to remember these grace-filled moments in which the Lord is present in a special way, that we share the God who journeys with us and often surprises us along the way. I pray that we are open to God's presence in one another and that we spend time each day bringing the Lord of the Holy Saturday miracle to the lives of everyone we meet.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! He is truly risen and lives within us.

Sr. Mary Ellen
