"I am innocent and I die innocent. I forgive with all my heart those responsible for my death, and I ask God that the shedding of my blood serve the peace of our divided Mexico."

(St. Christopher Magallanes)

As you might have noticed from the front of the bulletin, I'm happy to announce that we found a new business manager! Mary Ann Coleman comes to us after working in managerial roles at Northeast Filter and Equipment, Cardinal Health, and American Greetings. Mary Ann began her role with us this past Tuesday working under the tutelage of Kathy Popelka. Let's give her a warm welcome when we see her.

As the school year wraps up this week on Friday at St. Anselm School, let's keep our students and faculty in prayer this summer. It has been a great blessing for me to have Mass with them each Friday during the school year. I look forward to seeing many of our school families this summer at the parish for various events and Masses to hear about their summer adventures. Just as a reminder: we'll continue to have Masses on Friday at 8:30am throughout the summer. We'll move these Masses beginning in June to the Daily Mass Chapel. We are also still enrolling for the 2023-2024 school year. If your family might be interested in Catholic education at St. Anselm School, consider reaching out to me or the school office office@stanselmschool.org.

A big thank you to our parish staff, bereavement ministers, and funeral servers this past week! It was a busy one for funerals at our parish. This is always a good reminder for us to remember our beloved dead in your prayers. As I mentioned in my homily last week, the rosary is an excellent prayer to pray during this month of May (Mary's Month). There are rosaries and how to pray the rosary pamphlets outside of the Daily Mass Chapel.

Know of my prayers for you all,

Fr. Chris

P.S. It's been a busy past few weeks for us at the parish. Be sure to check out social media, the website, and our bulletin boards for pictures of these events.

Saint Spotlight of the Week:St. Christopher Magallanes

Within the 1920s in Mexico was the height of the Mexican Cristero war started by the government of Mexico. On one side were the anti-Catholic government and rich bureaucracy of the country, and on the other side was the middle-class and poor of the country. This group wanted to do their best to protect their right to worship and right for the sacraments. They did not want to bow down to the unjust government and their greed. They realized the money was not king and therefore they coined the term “Viva, Cristo Rey” or “Long Live Christ the King”. There were a number of people that fled Mexico and a number of folks that went into hiding for fear of losing their life. There was a number of priests that were known as heroes of the people as they continued to minister to them as well as administered the sacraments. One of these priests was Cristobal Magallanes. Along with 21 other priests and possibly more, they continued to minister to the Mexican people despite the risk to their lives. Eventually Cristobal and the 21 were caught over the span of the war. It was until his dying breath that Padre Cristobal preached forgiveness and Cristo Rey. St Cristobal Magallanes and his 21 companion priests were canonized by Pope John Paul II in the year 2000.

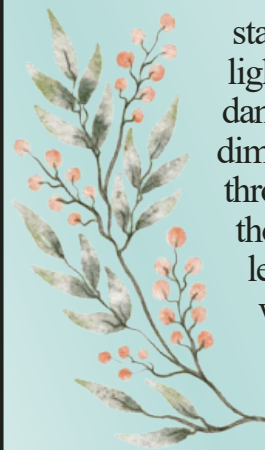

Notes from Sister Noel

As I spent time outside in the park recently, I recognized the beauty that surrounded me. I took the time to really see the woods with its diverse plants and trees as well as the wild flowers.

The chirping of birds seemed to welcome me into the woods. Here and there the birds soared between patches of grass and even the sunlight found its way between the trees making the space more ethereal.

I reflected on why God started his creation by creating light and darkness which when dancing together brings a new dimension of beauty. It breaks through our muddled and anxious thoughts. It becomes a time for letting go even for a moment of whatever blinds us to God's gifts.

God is trying to communicate with us.

Creation calls for us to literally stop in our tracks to behold it all and in so doing, we become more connected to our Creator who often provides comfort to us without words.

In this season of spring, a season of renewal and re-creation, we are invited to also share our own gifts of creativity whether it is in painting, gardening, cooking, and in befriending the earth and one another. Our world needs caring hearts.

Our kind words and actions often comfort and bring peace. Kindness is a gift much needed in our suffering world. It brightens another's life and also changes our relationship to them in a positive way.

We are part of God's creation. Let us ask God in the words of St. Francis of Assisi to become God's instruments, “Where there is darkness, let me sow light”. Being kind is one way of doing just that.

Sister Noel Marro OSU

happy graduation

This past Thursday, May 18, we celebrated the graduation of our 8th grade class. We are so proud of the hard work, dedication, and leadership that these students exhibited this past school year. This is truly a remarkable and special class and we are sad to see them leave while at the same time excited to see the bright future that awaits them as they move onto high school! May we all pray for the following students as they embark on the next chapter of their lives:

Chloe Cherosky

Stella Moore

Lauren Ferrando

Mateo Paul

Sofia Finomore

Joseph Penny

Willa Gordon

Olivia Penny

Abigail Hoose

Keira Schaab

Greta Mayer

Michael Velotta

Kiera McLaughlin

Hunter Zebrak

God bless you all, St. Anselm Class of 2023! Go, set the world on fire!

Mr. Adam W. Cottos

The Angela Circle at St. Anselm provides an opportunity to spend time in prayer and sharing around the wisdom and holiness of St. Angela Merici, founder of the Ursuline Sisters. We welcome new members. Meetings on the second to the last Monday of each month in the Pentecost Room of the Offices. We begin at 6:00 pm.

Register now for the Saint Anselm Athletic Association Golf Outing. Friday June 2nd at Legend Lake Golf Course. Scan the QR code for details and registration. Forms are also available in the back of the church. Questions? Please contact Dave Cherosky at 216-235-3482.
