"Christ is the first-born of every creature and the whole of humanity. as well as the created world, finds its foundation and meaning in Him." (St. Lawrence of Brindisi)

Typically, in the month of July, things are a bit calmer at the parish, but there has been so much good to speak about. For starters, last week I highlighted the good news for those who wish to send their children to Catholic Schools. The State of Ohio budget now includes "Ed. Choice for All" which is a scholarship of approximately $6,165 per student whose family income level is 450% or below the federal poverty level. For example, this would be a family of 4 whose adjusted gross income is at or below $135k per year. And it is a sliding scale after that. So at the very least, each family who chooses to send their children to Catholic Schools will get at least $615 per child towards their tuition. This is great news indeed! As always, feel free to reach out to Mrs. Therese Rose, our school principal, or myself for more information. You can call or email us with the contact information on the front of the bulletin. We hope to continue to have current information available on our website, social media, bulletin, and through parish email systems. Do realize that we do have limited space in each class for incoming students. St. Anselm School is an intentionally smaller school with a current K-8 student capacity of 25 students per class. This gives our families and faculty a chance to really get to know each other as well as receive the best education possible due to the smaller class sizes. Thank you to all of you for your support of our parochial school for over 60 years. It is a place where not only our students receive a stellar classroom education, but it is also where they encounter Christ daily.

Speaking of thanks, I am humbled by the great response to our summer BBQ raffle! I think we're getting closer to beating last year's number, and I think we would all love to see that. Thank you so much for sending in those tickets. It's hard to believe that the BBQ is only two weeks from this weekend. This weekend's bulletin has a schedule of the events planned for the day, beginning with outdoor Mass at 11am. Along the counter outside of the Daily Mass Chapel are sign-up sheets to help volunteer for the event. Please consider signing up your family to help with our myriad of activities.

Know of my daily prayers for each of you!
Fr. Chris

Saint Spotlight of the Week: St. Lawrence of Brindisi

If all of us were to look back through our lives, we could recall the names of the very intelligent people whom we've encountered. When it comes to Church history, one of those very intelligent people is Lawrence of Brindisi. He was a master linguist who fluently spoke and wrote 7 languages. He was so good at each of these languages, that the natives often thought he was one of them. When he would preach to the Jewish people in Rome, because of his mastery of the Hebrew language, they thought he was a Jewish convert to Christianity. Sometimes with great intelligence can come a difficulty with empathy. This was not the case for Lawrence. He was noted for his deep care for people as a Capuchin Franciscan. He was elected the minister general of the order, and was responsible for its rapid growth in the year 1602. In addition to this role, the Holy Father appointed him as the Papal Emissary and peacemaker, a position that would take him around the world wherein he could employ his ability with languages, his grasp of theology, while remaining compassionate to everyone he met. He was well-written, and the Franciscans have catalogued a 15-volume edition of his writings. St. Lawrence of Brindisi, Pray for us!

Notes from Sister Noel

I was driving in Parma a few days ago and saw a church sign that said, "If you can't stop thinking about it, don't stop praying about it." That got me thinking. That is a bit of wisdom. The things that worry us need our prayers, not our on-going worry. If we change our worry into faith, our burden lessens, and with faith we could more easily leave the results to God. However, don't be surprised if God finds a way for us to help the situation.

I appreciated the message, given unasked, while I drove through traffic around 5:30p.m. It helped to me to slow down not only my car but my heart as I tried to maneuver the maze of drivers.

I guess I needed wisdom right then and God provided. When has God done that for you as well? God is trying to get our attention. The noise and confusion of our days restricts our vision in more ways than one. I am sure you are aware of all the pressures which surround us environmentally and socially.

What are you doing for yourself to block out all the noise so you can hear God speaking to you as well? In what ways does God break through our own interior chatter and worry? It is a good thing to keep a little book recording the surprising messages you receive. It reinforces that one does not have to be a mystic to know God is near.

A familiar prayer comes to mind as I write. "God grant me the Serenity to accept the things I can not change, the Courage to change what I can and Wisdom to know the difference." Amen!

Parish BBQ

Excitement is building since our fabulous parish picnic is now just weeks away — Sunday, July

30. The fun will go on even if there's rain, with a few adjustments. Remember to turn in your raffle tickets and donation for multiple chances to win generous monetary prizes. Also, join the team by volunteering for a 2-hour shift at a task of your choosing. The sign-up sheets are in the baptistry on the counter abutting the cry room. Please include a contact phone number. There is also a sign-up sheet for donating bakery items to be offered as complimentary desserts. Treats that can be easily eaten without utensils are preferred.

The dates for the remaining BBQ Planning Committee meetings are as follows:

Tuesday, July 18 at 6 PM in Parish Office Building
Sunday, July 23 at 11 AM in Kelly Hall

"Faith Seeks Understanding."

The final discussion for this summer book discussions is scheduled for this Thursday, July 20 after 8:30 AM Mass. We will do a compare/contrast canvassing of the different expressions of what C. S. Lewis calls the Tao, but which could also be defined as "the natural law", accessible to human conscience as shown in its many examples in history. Lewis provides these examples in the 4th Chapter or Appendix of The Abolition of Man. All are welcome, and for this discussion a copy of the book is helpful, but not necessary---you may have your own sources for "the first principles of morality"! 9 AM refreshments, 9:30 – 10:30, our conversations, meeting place---St. Anselm's Rectory. Call the rectory (440-729-9575) for more information.

Food Pantry Update

For the month of June, the Collinwood Food Pantry served 418 individuals. The number of people served is continuing to increase and especially with the children out of school for the summer where they normally get a meal while at school, there is a greater need for help. Our support of this pantry, as well as the local Geauga pantry is greatly appreciated. With your generous monetary donations, we continue to supply both the pantries with food items and personal hygiene items that they need the most. Donations can be made online or at Mass in the offertory collection. Envelopes are available at the bulletin board in the baptistry. Also please note, we are having a summer canned goods collection for the pantries which will take place during the parish BBQ on July 30th. If you could, please bring a can or two and place it in the collection boxes which will be located in Kelly Hall. Thank You!
