From the Desk of Fr. Chris

"The Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' message. Lovingly received day after day by the Church, it is to be preached with dauntless fidelity as "good news" to the people of every age and culture."

(Evangelium Vitae)

We are in the midst of what I like to think of as a very blessed stretch of Saint Feast Days. If you're looking to pray through the intercession of Saints, this is a great time as we have some powerful intercessors. Even this weekend we celebrate the Feast of St. Jerome (09/30) who translated the Bible by hand into one language (Latin) called the Vulgate, but this Saint had to do this patient task between 383AD - 404AD. While he would grow impatient or angry at times, he always found a way to come back to the virtues of patience and gentleness. He knew that this task, while given by the Pope, was led by the Holy Spirit.

On Sunday (10/01) the Church recognizes the Feast of St. Thérèse of Lisieux (often known as the "Little Flower"). While she would only live to the age of 24, she would write one of the most prolific journals of all time. "The Story of A Soul" detailed a conversation she had with God as a Carmelite nun. In this book, she would highlight "the little way", which she felt was a great pursuit of everyday grace. It meant going out of her way in the convent to do things no one else wanted to do, or take care of fellow nuns that were extra challenging. These tasks might not draw human attention, but she knew that God saw them all.

This weekend, we are blessed to welcome and pray for our First Responders through the intercession of the Patron Saint of First Responders, St. Michael the Archangel. We celebrated the Feast of the Archangels on Friday (09/29). The world is in great need of prayers in the spiritual battles between good and evil – and we have a great opportunity each day to pray for goodness and truth to prevail. May God continue to keep these men and women safe through the intercession of the angels and archangels.

Next weekend on Sunday (10/01), we have our annual blessing of pets and animals at 1pm in front of the Church in the parking lot. This is in honor of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron Saint of animals, whose Feast Day is Celebrated October 4th. Consider bringing animals of all sizes to have them blessed. Strider, my golden retriever, will make an appearance again at this year's blessing.

Know of my prayers for you all,
Fr. Chris

Angels

With the Feasts of the Archangels (09/29) and Guardian Angels (10/02) happening in close proximity to one another, it's good to recall that God has created beings higher in the order of creation than human beings.

It's been said that one angel has more knowledge than every human who has ever existed, exists today, and will ever exist. These beings, while they interact with both the spiritual and physical world, exist in the spiritual world. At Mass, we reference them frequently in our prayers, hymns, and readings. According to Church teaching, there are 9 choirs/ranks of angels. Those who interact with humanity the most are angels and archangels. Each of us, at the moment of our conception, are given a guardian angel to watch over and guide us. This is why many of us learned the guardian angel prayer when we were young. The word "angel" means "messenger". The archangel carries special messages from heaven to the physical realm. Gabriel the Archangel brought forward the Annunciation message to St. Mary that she would be the mother of Jesus. Gabriel also brought a similar message to St. Joseph. As awkward and sinful as we can be sometimes as human beings, our God continues to still bless us to occasionally participate in the ministry of angels, especially at the Mass. May the intercession of the angels and archangels continue to watch over and protect us.

Notes from Sister Noel

My head is registering a new message, that is, we are back in school! It is a familiar experience and all of us are impacted in some way whether we are parents, teachers, grandparents or children. Somehow it's like getting on a roller coaster.

Ask an advertiser or a store owner, if they sense school has begun and before you know it we are talking about how it is a challenge to keep up with it all!! Halloween merchandise bombards us. In the card aisle, we may find the Thanksgiving and Christmas cards! Yes, you heard right. Christmas cards!

In our society, we have a lot in common with experiencing stress, whether it is e-stress or distress. We are all at some time ready to say, "enough!"

We do have the ability to live with it another way. Jesus showed us that He, too, experienced stress, when many came at Him, asking for healing, seeking a miracle. What did He do? He went to the other side of the lake. (Who wants to go to Canada, the other side of Lake Erie?)

What Jesus did was give Himself time to separate from the roar of the crowd. He sought solitude, a place to call upon the Father. He, too, needed consolation and inspiration. Jesus invites us to Himself as well.

"Come to me who are heavily burdened and I will give you rest."

Go to your quiet place not as an escape, but as an encounter, with the God who knows you and loves you. Your quiet place may be in your home, your backyard, a park, our Church. Your quiet time may be 5 min, an hour, a morning or beyond.

We could also find a renewable moment by praying with others, at Mass, a Holy Hour, Benediction, or a group retreat. Let your stress lead you to God.

Faith Seeks Understanding

The "faith seeks understanding" book discussions on The Great Divorce, scheduled for this October, are just a week from their Thursday October 5th 'kick-off'!

The details: Thursday mornings after the 8:30 Mass including refreshments @ 9 AM, the conversation itself from (9:30 – 10:30), all at St. Anselm parish. The biblical precept, "seek and you shall find" or "ask and you will receive" is encouraging here; the understanding we seek in these discussions is one of the 7 gifts of the Holy Spirit, and well worth the conversational effort to open ourselves up to this gift.

Please call Kim @ St. Anselm's Parish Office—440-729-9575 to sign up, reserve a book, or for more information.

Blanket Sunday Coming Soon!

The weekend of October 14-15 marks the 37th Annual Blanket Sunday Collection to help the poor. This collection is sponsored by the Diocesan St. Vincent De Paul Society. Due to sanitary concerns and lack of storage space, we will gratefully accept your financial donation and do the shopping for you, making your money go even further with bulk purchases of blankets and other items needed by the homeless and disadvantaged. So please "blanket" someone for the winter—and give yourself a warm feeling! You may also donate at www.svdpcle.org.

Hello Dear St. Anselm Family!

Happy Autumn! I hope your summer was filled with memories that brought you smiles. I miss you very much. Here's an update:

After leaving you at the end of June, it was discovered I had a tumor in my thyroid. Thankfully, after surgery in late July, I learned the tumor was benign. I am grateful for your prayers.

A few weeks ago, I moved to my new home at Saint Anthony Convent in Parma. I am still very much unpacking and trying to settle in.

I continue to care for my brother. Please pray for Larry who will have open heart surgery in October to replace a valve. He is in remission from leukemia, brain cancer, spine cancer, and tongue cancer and has other health issues, so this surgery will be challenging for him.

Thanks for your ongoing love and concern. I remain grateful for your kind notes, messages and thoughtful gifts to me. I have been missing you, so I just reread all of the cards you gave me when I left St. Anselm. I hope to visit you as soon as I am able.

A big hug, a smile, and a prayer coming your way from Parma.
Love you.
