From the Desk of Fr. Chris

"O God, let me know you and love you so that I may find joy in you; and if I cannot do so fully in this life, let me at least make some progress every day, until at last that knowledge, love and joy come to me in all their plenitude." (St. Anselm of Canterbury)

Due to bulletin deadlines (because of the Thanksgiving Holiday), articles for this bulletin had to be submitted long in advance of its printing. As you read this bulletin, I pray that you and your family had a blessed Thanksgiving. I'm sure many of our homes smelled wonderfully of good food and bakery.

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe or Christ the King for short. It is the last Sunday of the Church year. It often gives us pause as we reflect upon this past year. In the spirit of Thanksgiving, I'm grateful for each of you and your dedication to your faith and this parish. Thank you for your patience as we have brought aboard many new staff members and have learned to navigate parish life together. I'm grateful for each of them and their daily "yes" to serving in ministry at St. Anselm. I invite you to join me in prayer for each of them as we enter this new Church year next weekend.

As we anticipate Advent next week, we'll see the Church transformed once more. Our trees will go up as will our Advent wreath. It'll not only look different from this weekend, but it'll feel a bit different as we change our focus to anticipation – anticipating the coming of Christ at Christmas. A special thank you goes to our Art & Environment committee who faithfully make our Church look so beautiful. A thank you also goes out to our many liturgical ministers who will participate in our many Masses and prayer opportunities during the season of Advent.

I once more encourage each of you to page through this bulletin to see some of the activities coming up. If you check out our social media and website, you'll find regular event postings including opportunities for prayer and fellowship. Consider attending an extra daily mass each week or perhaps join us for Eucharistic adoration. This week is a great time, if you haven't already, to dust off your home advent wreath, or if you don't have one, consider making one with your family. We'll have a little booklet of advent wreath prayers to pray in the baptistry next week. Let's make this coming Church year a year to grow in holiness and virtue.

May God Bless You,

Fr. Chris

Encounter Church

The Liturgical Year

The Liturgical Year celebrates the saving work of Jesus Christ on prescribed days of the year. Within these special feasts, the faithful are called to live out the mystery of Christ in our own lives. It draws us into the events of the life of Christ, and of Mary and the saints, whose lives also draw us deeper into the saving actions of Jesus.

The Liturgical is made up of six seasons: Advent, Christmas, Lent, Sacred Paschal Triduum, Easter, and Ordinary Time. Each of these seasons is designated a specific liturgical color, with further engages the senses of the material human person, as it draws our eyes to notice the difference in the vestments of the priest, altar cloths, and other materials within the sanctuary.

The Second Vatican Council brought renewed emphasis to Sunday as a unique liturgical category: "the Lord's day is the original feast day" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, no. 106), and it "must be observed in the universal Church as the primordial holy day of obligation" (Code of Canon Law, canon 1246 §1). Thus, only a limited number of feasts of the Lord or the saints may take the place of the scheduled Sunday celebration.

The Liturgical Year draws to a close with the great Feast of Christ the King (today!) as the last Sunday of the year, and opens with the First Sunday of Advent (next Sunday) which draws us to meditate on the impending feast of the Incarnation on Christmas. Each year we are invited to journey through the mysteries of the Incarnation, to share in the joys and sufferings of Jesus, His Mother, His friends and apostles, and called to live in His joy as the saints before us.

Parish Advent Giving Tree

The Parish Advent Giving Tree will be in the baptistry starting the weekend of December 2 and 3. We are asking that gifts be returned by the weekend of December 16 and 17.

Notes from Sister Noel

Thankfulness is the virtue being celebrated in November, hopefully we practice it throughout each day. It is this virtue that strongly impacts our own capacity to relate to God and others. Peace and joy becomes an outgrowth of our being thankful.

I think the Christmas Boutique is one of our best events which drew people from Lake, Geauga and beyond. Some come from Parma each year to enjoy their shopping spree with us. Thank you to all who supported the many vendors who participated.

As I talked with some of the vendors, I only heard good things about our site. Many went home having met their goal or grateful for what they had earned. It was a pleasant experience for all. Thank you to the vendors for choosing us this year.

Thank you to all who did set up and take down in Kelly and Anderson Hall. The boutique called for more than 90 tables!

Thank you to all who spent time in the kitchen, at the bake sale and prize table or were at doors selling entrance tickets. Oh, and don't forget those who picked up the pizza, the pretzels, the hot dogs etc. Thank you to all the bakers!

Thank you to the teens who acted as waitresses for the vendors and others who cleaned tables and helped to carry drinks to tables when needed. The refreshments disappeared faster than last year. We await the exact number of attendees probably later in the week. We'll keep you posted.

Thank you to Shirley Chambers and the Women's Guild for taking on quite an enterprise. Though they are small in number, they are mighty. Lest we forget the unseen workers from our office who deal with final finance reports! Thank You.
