From the Desk of Fr. Chris

"Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do."

(Col. 3:12-13)

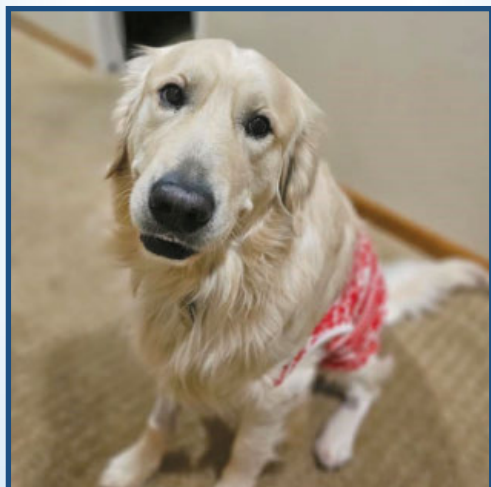

Happy Feast of the Holy Family and Happy New Year! I pray that you had a blessed Christmas last week. As Catholics, we're still not only in the octave of Christmas but we're also in the Christmas Season. This means that you'll be able to keep up those Christmas decorations for a bit longer and continue to listen to your favorite Christmas songs. You'll see our decorations in the Church up for the duration of the Season of Christmas.

Looking into 2024, be sure to check out this bulletin for new programs, events, and opportunities at the parish. Knowing that some of you were visiting family away from St. Anselm for Christmas, we've included our annual full-page 'recap of 2023/looking ahead at 2024' column.

Thank you to so many of you for your kind gifts for Christmas. I feel very blessed to be part of the St. Anselm parish family. I pray that God will continue to bless us abundantly into 2024. Know that I hold you all in prayer each day.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Chris

Encounter Church

The Holy Family

Typically around Christmastime we see figurines of the Holy Family being put up in our houses and churches. More than a pretty decoration, there is much we can learn from the private life of Christ with His parents, Mary and Joseph. We learn healthy discipline, obedience, virtue, and patience, radical self-giving.

Before the birth of Christ even took place, Mary and Joseph were called to give of themselves in profound ways. Mary and Joseph both lost the respect of others in their community because of what people thought was a scandalous unwed pregnancy. They left the comfort of their homes and were treated as outcasts when they finally made it to Bethlehem.

After Jesus' birth, God told Joseph in a dream to go to Egypt to keep them safe from Herod's wrath. Though Joseph speaks no verbal words in Scripture, he is profoundly obedient to God's call to him in so many ways. Scripture tells us that he was a righteous man. It is evident that Joseph's actions spoke volumes to those around him.

While little is said about Jesus' private life in Nazareth, we know that He grew in stature and in wisdom, and was obedient to His parents. How humble! Jesus, who was God Himself, was obedient to His parents. He learned a trade from Joseph, studied Scripture, and grew under the care of Mary.

In all of her humility, Mary only pointed people to her Son. Her last spoken words in Scripture are, "Do whatever He tells you." This is a message for each of us.

As we read about the events of Jesus' early life, may we never forget the love and obedience Jesus had for Mary and Joseph, and strive to love our families as the Holy Family loved each other.

Eternal Rest grant unto them, O Lord...

Thomas Edward McLaughlin, Jr., DDS

Please pray for our deceased brothers and sisters.

Notes from Sister Noel

Here is my last column for 2023. Which means it will soon be time for the First column for 2024! Like you needed me to tell you? Noooo!

The point I want to make is that with every ending there is a beginning. Though we may have to grieve the ending at times, we also can be open to what the beginning is bringing us. It calls for a spirit of expectancy rather than dread.

We are in the midst of the Christmas season celebrating who was to come and who came changing our world for all who believe. Jesus was a gift of hope. He remains with us in less than obvious ways, but in ways that are real. When we look with our eyes of faith, seeing as God sees so much more makes sense. We began to recognize God working in God's mysterious ways. God is forever trying to communicate with us.

It is important that we are in communication with God as well. That means, taking time for prayer and meditation, learning to experience quiet whenever and wherever we can find it. Where and when do you find it? Driving alone in the car? Walking outside for a bit? Waiting in line? Take time to figure that out. Otherwise, you may be missing opportunities of God talking to you.

When we talk about beginnings and endings, we are basically talking about change. Somehow these beginnings and endings get our attention. We meet change each day. Some days we are better at adapting to change than other days. One way we can help ourselves to meet the more stressful changes is to slow down, find quiet, seek the counsel of the Holy Spirit and then act or not act on it accordingly.

As part of the New Year, look at the changes in 2023 that either challenged or energized you. What was the gift in those changes? If you don't know, just believe you may come to know that in time...in God's time. I hope you as the reader is will continue to seek God's signs in your lives. Happy New Year!

Sister Noel Marie OSU.
