From the Desk of Fr. Chris

"Jesus looked at him and said, 'You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas' — which is translated Peter." (Jn 1:42)

This weekend we find ourselves back in Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time is a time for each of us to grow in everyday holiness. There's a focus on growing in virtue and prayer in our daily routines. Like the Apostles who were called by Jesus in this weekend's Gospel, we sometimes are called to drop our nets to follow Him. As Pope St. John Paul II would often remind pilgrims to Rome, we are called to follow Christ with "Corragio" (Courage).

But how do we hear the voice of God? Sometimes that's a hard thing to do in our busy world of 2024. Sacred Scriptures, the Bible, reminds us that God is often found in the silence. That seems to be harder and harder to do as the years go on, but it's not impossible. The Church provides us with a refuge from the distractions and noise of our daily lives. When we come into the church building, there's already an immediate different feeling than other places we find ourselves throughout the week. We bless ourselves with holy water as we come into the Church, an action that not only signifies baptism, but also that we have been claimed by Christ. As soon as we enter into the inner doors of the Church past the baptistry and we're invited by God to approach the sanctuary, like Moses' encounter with God in the burning bush, we're reminded that it's hallowed ground. Before we enter the pew, we genuflect toward the tabernacle as a way to recognize the presence of Christ the King in the Eucharist. As we enter into the pew either to be seated or to kneel, there's an invitation to sacred silence. In the silence we prepare our hearts for the holy Mass by conversing in our hearts with God in His house. Let's challenge ourselves to prepare ourselves for Mass well in 2024, perhaps with a better observation of sacred silence as we approach God's sanctuary.

This past week it was great to see many of you at the school Epiphany Concert on Monday. What a great way to end the Christmas Season! While our Church has now visually transformed back into Ordinary Time, let's bring the gratitude and blessings of the Christmas Season with us. It is my hope that all of you had the opportunity to do the annual Epiphany House Blessing. If you didn't get a chance to get blessed chalk last weekend, you can stop by the vesting sacristy to get some this weekend or stop by the parish office this week during office hours.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Chris

How Do I Prepare for Mass?

The celebration of Holy Eucharist, also known as Mass, is the highest form of worship we have as Catholics. It's the most important thing we do in this life. Just like other important events, we should take time to prepare ourselves for this time when Heaven literally touches Earth. So how do we do that? Here are a few simple ways we can prepare ourselves for Mass.

1. Fasting for an hour before receiving Eucharist. Our bodies and souls are both just as important to our human nature as the other. If we want to prepare our souls to receive Jesus, we should also be preparing our bodies. Fasting reminds us that we should remain empty and prepared for Christ to fill us. Our physical hunger and need for nourishment reminds us of our spiritual need for God to sustain us through this sacred meal.

2. Wear something nice to Mass. What do we usually do when we go to important events, like weddings, graduations, or other important ceremonies? We wear something special! Our physical bodies demonstrate an internal disposition: it shows that we acknowledge the divine things happening at Mass. The Mass is a foretaste of Heaven, which Jesus called "The Wedding Feast of the Lamb." Whenever possible, we should dress for that Wedding Feast!

3. Arrive early to Church to give yourself time to calm yourself. Sometimes getting to Mass can be stressful or chaotic. Planning ahead and arriving ten or even five minutes early can give us the time we need to calm down from the chaos of life.

4. Read the readings ahead of time. All of the week's readings for Masses can be found here in the bulletin or online at uscbb.org. Reading the Scriptures before we hear them at Mass allows us to enter into the Scriptures more deeply, and allow the words to take root in our souls and truly affect the way we live.

5. Choose a Mass intention before Mass begins. After the Gloria is sung during the opening rites of every Mass, the priest will say "let us pray," followed by a brief silence. At this time, take an opportunity to offer to God someone or something that you would like to bring to Mass. Remember that the Mass is a sacrifice, the greatest sacrifice we offer God. We can choose to offer that sacrifice for those we love or a situation where we need God in a special way.

Notes from Sister Noel

Our second semester for gr. 2 children and their families continues their faith journey from preparation for First Reconciliation to preparation for First Communion! That is an exciting new direction. Our Parent Meeting for all Gr. 2 parents in our parish was on Wednesday, January 10.

This year we started with attending Mass followed by Father Chris' presentation on Mass/Eucharist. This seemed to be a good change since this is the year of Eucharistic Renewal. I did my part following Father by introducing the Jesus Books which are take-home booklets to work along with their parents and, at times, alone.

In February you will begin to see at our Saturday/Sunday Masses the families of the children getting ready for First Eucharist in our Offertory Processions. This is a special time for the children being part of Liturgy.

Later in January, we will introduce the Praesidium Program which is "Protecting God's Children". Grades 1-5 will have 15 minute lessons for children helping children to be aware of "reading" faces, trusting their gut feelings so to talk to a trusted adult, and learning the positive and negative of technology so they remain safe. One of the facets mentioned above are taught at age-appropriate times. This is not to frighten but empower children. This program has been a part of PSR over the past 6 or 7 years.

In grade 7, I introduce a program presented by young adults (videos). I facilitate the discussion with the students, bringing together the components taught in gr. 1-5 with the final presentation of the evening. This is a 2 evening workshop during PSR time. This program is sponsored by the Diocese of Cleveland.

Students in grade 8 preparing for Confirmation in April will continue their at-home series presented by Matthew Kelly. Each session calls for faith sharing with their Sponsor or Parent. This month's theme is Friendship. Viewing videos, journaling and sharing faith are the highlights of the Decision Point series. This is the fourth of 5 sessions.

I am grateful to the cooperation between the students and sponsors to make this a meaningful experience.

Faith Seeks Understanding

The "faith seeks understanding" book discussion meetings will resume this Lent, beginning on Thursday, February 15., and running for the six weeks of Lent
before Holy Week each Thursday morning after the 8:30 AM Mass. The last Thursday we will meet will be on March 21, 2024. The book we will read will be Bread and Wine: Readings for Lent and Easter---these entries for each day are short but insightful (and there are ones from authors that have already been read: C. S. Lewis, G.K. Chesterland, Edith Stein) and many others. The book can be obtained at the rectory for $15.

Please call the rectory for more information (440-729-9575) and to request a book so we can know approximately how many books to order.

Men!

2024 is here and is full of promise and choices. And we hope you use one of your choices to join us for a Men's Retreat (adults and teens) on Saturday February 10th.

It will be at St. Mary Chardon and starts with Mass at 8:00 a.m.

It will end about 2:00 p.m. Both breakfast and lunch are provided and a freewill offering of $15 is suggested.

The theme is "BE HOLY!" Sounds like a good choice for the New Year!

To register, email Gary Burling at garyWburling@gmail.com.
