From the Desk of Fr. Chris

"In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen." (Introductory Rites – Sign of the Cross)

What a blessing these first few days of Lent have been for all of us! If you're continuing to look for resources to help make your Lent especially holy this year, consider some of the resources on the table in the baptistry or download a prayer app like iBreviary or the Hallow app to help as a guide. Of course, Lent also provides us with new opportunities as we enter the desert with Christ. Perhaps this Lent you commit to attending not just Sunday Mass, but also a daily Mass. Perhaps you learn to pray Night Prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours? Whatever the commitment, know that it's helping to mold you into becoming a Saint.

Speaking of Lenten commitments, this weekend we have blank square pieces of purple paper. On these pieces of purple paper, you and your family are encouraged to write your Lenten commitment: prayer, works of charity, growth in virtue, etc. Those pieces of purple paper (no names required on them) will be placed in the box on the countertop outside of the Daily Mass Chapel in the Baptistry. You'll see a sign next to the correct box. Those pieces of paper will be added to the container in the Sanctuary during Lent. This gives us a chance to remind ourselves of our own Lenten commitment, but to also pray for others in our community in their commitments. Our St. Anselm School and PSR students will be participating in this community effort as well.

I'd like to transition to a little bit of news. After serving faithfully at St. Anselm for over the past decade, Sr. Noel recently informed me that she will be retiring at the end of June. I know you'll join me in thanking her for her dedication and commitment to serving the Lord in our parish for many years. She has accompanied hundreds of St. Anselm youth to the Altar of the Lord for their First Holy Communion. She has journeyed with hundreds more of our St. Anselm young men and women as they prepared for and received their Sacrament of Confirmation. I told her recently that I have never worked with another DRE who so effectively gathered catechists and other volunteers like she has. She is a true gatherer of people. As we get closer to her retirement, I'll write a little bit more about her and we'll talk about dates/times when we can formally thank her as a community for her dedication. This Lent, I'd encourage you to keep her in prayer as she prepares to embark upon a new journey. Also please keep me in prayer as I search for the next DRE of St. Anselm Parish. May the Lord continue to bless all of us.

Prayerfully in Christ,
Fr. Chris

Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving

Usually when we start to see information for Lent, we see these three words: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. But what do these words mean, and why are they important to this season of Lent? The Church gives us three ways to draw closer to Christ in these next 40 days.

Prayer: Prayer is conversation with God. In order to have a relationship with anyone, we need to have conversations with that person. By praying and building a strong foundation of relationship with Jesus, we receive the strength to give ourselves to others.

Fasting: Fasting gives us the opportunity to strip away anything in our lives that might hinder our relationship with God. Typically our minds go straight to fasting from food. But sometimes it can be good to give up things that eat away at our time, our talent, or our treasure. We can fast from social media, gossip, spending extra money, or little creature comforts like coffee or sweets. So long as we offer our fasting up to God, it can bear good fruit.

Almsgiving: "Alms" are things like money or other goods given to the poor. While it is always important to pay attention to the needs of those less fortunate, Lent is an excellent time to acknowledge how blessed we are, and reach out to those who need our help. Almsgiving helps us to recognize the wonderful things we've been given, and to take what extras we have (or even sacrifice the not-so-extras), to trim down the comforts around us and help to provide for those who have nothing.

Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are three important pillars of Lent. When practiced together they can make our Lent so much more beautiful.

First Communion News

Happening now and extending until April, First Communicants along with family or parents will be participating in the Offertory Procession at the Saturday and Sunday Masses

Please pray for these children as they move forward to First Communion Day on May 4th at 11:00 AM.

Notes from Sister Noel

In the past week, Loyola Press – our Religion Book Publishers – sent an eye-catching form for children called, "A Whole Bunch of Values". On the page are circles of different sizes with a value to focus on each day of Lent. They are asked to practice a value a day then color in the circle.

I thought this idea would be great for all of us. Adults, too, may decide this Lenten Practice for themselves. Some of the values were thankfulness, kindness, attention, simplicity, charity, honesty, compassion etc. This practice would help us to center our day in one particular action, hopefully, it may be a beginning step to seeing how each day can benefit our growth in relationship to God and others.

If you are interested in this practice, just ask me for a copy so that your child, grandchild or yourself could give this a try. Or better yet, I will leave a pack in the wooden pocket below the PSR bulletin board in church. I will replace more copies as needed.

Lent is a good way to try to slow down. The holidays pushed us into high gear at times. The quiet times in which we find moments to reflect on our day and respond in prayer can be better than a pill. Our "God time" reminds us that time itself is a gift. Giving God back some of the time God has given us is one of the most important ways that we use the gift. It is a way of saying "thank you" to God. Let us pray for each other as we journey through this Lent to Easter.

Sister Noel Morris OSU
