From the Desk of Fr. Chris

"O God, let me know you and love you so that I may find joy in you; and if I cannot do so fully in this life, let me at least make some progress every day, until at last that knowledge, love and joy come to me in all their plenitude." (St. Anselm)

Last weekend was a weekend of many blessings for our community. Members of our RCIA went through the first of 3 Scrutinies at the 9am Mass. Our St. Anselm School Parent Club hosted another successful "Handbag Bash," which helps to provide them funding for the betterment of our parish school. I also made a big announcement at all of our weekend Masses.

In early 2021, Fr. Tom Sweany announced that he would be retiring from his position as Pastor of St. Anselm. The parishioners of St. Anselm would fill out surveys to give your input on the desired qualities of the next leader of St. Anselm. Towards the end of June of 2021, I received a call from the Diocese asking me to lead the parish as the Administrator of the parish. On October 1st of 2021, I assumed the responsibility of leading our parish. Recently, I had a meeting with Bishop Malesic to talk about our parish. I was so grateful to tell him about the wonderful things our parish family has been doing and the growth we've seen these past 2+ years together. Towards the end of our conversation, he said that he would like to officially appoint me as the 4th Pastor of St. Anselm. While my responsibilities don't change, the appointment of a Pastor has a bit more permanence than an Administrator (temporary title). It also lets us continue the great work that we've been doing. The Holy Spirit is working beautifully in our community and I am excited to see what God will continue to do through and with us.

So when is this installation of Pastor? Everyone is invited to join us for the Installation Mass on Saturday May 11th at the 4pm Vigil Mass. We'll have a gathering in Kelly Hall afterwards. Continue to read through the bulletin, social media, and the website for updates. I hope that you're able to make it to the 4th installation in 63 years! Thank you to so many of you for your kind words and notes already. I look forward to celebrating this occasion with all of you on May 11th.

May God Bless You,
Fr. Chris

Lent Week 3: Liturgy of the Eucharist

This weekend at Masses, we were very blessed to hear Fr. Chris talk about the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The term “daily bread” was used in Israel to describe the essential nourishment needed for survival. Fr. Chris pointed out that we don’t always necessarily think of bread as a “main course” of a meal. But Israel did, and we reference this when we say the words of the Our Father, asking God to sustain us, physically, but also spiritually on our journey to Him.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the “setting of the table.” This again is a reference to those in the Jewish faith who would bring forth the best of what they had as a sacrifice to God. It was a way of acknowledging that while yes, we need these things to survive, we love God so much, that we’re giving these good things to Him in praise and thanksgiving. As the Israelites and the Jews would bring the best of their bread, honey, produce and livestock, we also bring what we have to the altar with the presentation of the gifts.

The celebrant of the Mass then says a prayer of thanksgiving, and then washes his hands. This again has its roots in Judaism, when the priests would perform a ritual washing before entering the Holy of Holies in the temple to offer sacrifice. When we come to Mass, we are participating in the offering of Jesus, the highest acceptable sacrifice, to the Father.

During the prayer called the Preface, there is a reference to the angels and saints singing “Holy, Holy, Holy!” The praises we sing to God in the Mass are taking place in Heaven at the same time. When the priest pronounces the Words of Institution (“Take this and eat of it...take and drink”), we are lifted out of Chronos, into Kairos. The very same sacrifice offered on the Cross more than 2,000 years ago is made present to us through time and space on the altar in our presence. And this is when the veil that separates Heaven and Earth is at its thinnest.

The work that we do in the Liturgy is eternal. The experience of the Mass, especially in the Liturgy of the Eucharist portion, is proof that our actions matter. We get to participate in Jesus’ sacrifice to the Father, and it is this sacrifice that saves us.

Notes from Sister Noel

The more I reflect on Jesus coming as a human being, the more I realize what a demonstration it is of God’s desire to come close to us and to experience what we experience. Jesus did just that. In doing that, Jesus’ words rang authentically of the care we need to have towards our neighbor as well as our earth and its living creatures. We can count on Jesus to lead us.

Jesus’ words throughout his adult life manifested how we are to grow into the person God wants us to be. God has a vision for each of us and has provided what we need to fulfill it within our lifetime.

We may fail to see what God envisions for us individually and collectively. We may fail to see gifts. We need to grow our gifts. They appear in simple ways as we begin. Often the family and community may see our gifts before we do.

We need to believe the re-occurring affirmations that others tell us about ourselves. We, too often, more readily believe the criticisms and hurtful words of others rather than positive messages. Ask God daily to strengthen your faith in Him and yourself.

Are we more tuned into the gifts of others rather than our own? Each of us has been given the graces to meet the needs in our own lives. Will it be easy? Not always. Will we find our gifts immediately? Definitely not. It takes a lifetime.

We may need to start over and over in our lives. Starting over is a good thing. It shows our persistence we possess to discover the path designated for each of us. While on the path, we will come to know someone is walking with us. Jesus tells us, “Seek ye first the Kingdom of God.” He has shown us in words and actions in His lifetime. Now God asks us to do likewise. Just keep on going!
