Altar Society News

Christmas is right around the corner and typically Altar Society holds our annual Christmas Party, which so many have always participated which makes it a fun and joyful evening. I am not comfortable holding the Christmas Party this year for fear of spreading the virus. I have had some say they would like to have the party, while others stated they will not attend if we have it.

Since traditionally Secret Sisters are revealed at the party, you have the option to deliver your gift to your Secret Sister or you may drop it by the church office between 9 am – 2 pm, Monday through Thursday. I understand we have the room to social distance, but while everyone is eating masks will be removed, which increases the risk. Although I will miss the gathering, I will feel much better if everyone stays safe. I am cancelling the 2020 Altar Society Christmas Party. I want to wish everyone a happy Holiday Season.

Sincerely,

Brenda Walta

Altar Society President

Sts. Peter & Paul's Holy Family Traveling Prayer Kit

This is our new traveling prayer kit. Our hope is that it will visit all our parishioners' homes.

Each parishioner will get it for one week. They will get to use it however they want, but it does come with some suggestions. At the end of the week, it will be passed on to the next parishioner. The Holy Family will be accompanying this kit wherever it goes. What better guests, for our homes! To sign up to have the kit, call or text Sandy.
