FROM THE RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

COLLECTING SIGNATURES THIS WEEKEND FOR INITIATIVE PETITION FOR A LAW

UNDER THE ROE ACT PASSED LAST YEAR BY THE MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE, A CHILD BORN ALIVE HAS NO LEGAL RIGHT TO LIFE-SUSTAINING MEDICAL CARE, REGARDLESS OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE CHILD'S BIRTH.

This weekend, you will have the opportunity to STAND UP FOR "NEWBORN RIGHT TO MEDICAL CARE" by signing an important initiative petition for a law.

This proposed law would require that, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if a child is born alive, all reasonable steps in keeping with good medical practice shall be taken to preserve the life of a child born alive.

If we succeed in reaching the goal of 85,000 signatures throughout the state of Massachusetts, this proposed law to preserve the lives of children born alive will appear on the 2022 election ballot.

Respect Life Ministry members will be available after all Masses at the East Main Street entrance of the Church. For more information, or to join the Respect Life Ministry, contact Linda at 508-949-1218 or email linpaqu@hotmail.com

O Lord, help us follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Let us humbly and diligently work to restore legal protection for the unborn, the disabled, the medically dependent and all innocent children of God whose lives are threatened. Lord, grant us a peaceful heart as we labor in your name. Amen.

Adopt A Sunday Mass

Looking for someone to assist with the return of coffee fellowship at each Sunday Mass.

Please let Fr. Adam know which Mass you can assist with.

Coffee fellowship will resume after all Sunday Masses starting on Sunday November 7th!!

"Behold I stand at the door and knock"

It's time. Time to learn more about your faith.

It's time to experience what our religion can do for you. Jesus is waiting for you personally. Cursillo weekends are a wonderful fun way to give you a start on this journey.

Men's Cursillo weekend November 11-14

Go to www.fourthday.org and download your application today, or call Pam Hamilton at 774-239-8909 for more information.

You will be so glad you did!

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength...and you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Through your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you can show your love for our Lord and your love of your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless, alone and frightened.

© Annika Nelson

"And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices." (Mark 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

SPRED Open House

SPRED (SPecial Religious EDucation) is holding an Open House at the Emmaus Ministry Center, 17 East Main Street, Webster, MA. (Across from Sacred Heart of Jesus Church and the site of the Adoration Chapel.) Entrance is on lower left side of building. This is being held on Sunday, November 7th from 9 to 10:30 AM. We have a group for children and a new one is starting for adults. And these groups are open to all parishes. Please contact Linda at Lbrink2019@gmail.com for any questions.

Merry Christmas!!! I know hearing that sounds a bit strange seeing we aren't even close to Thanksgiving. However, for Christmas greetings to arrive on time I must send the e-letters out by the week of Nov. 15th.

So if you would like to send Anny, Oliver, Angel or Jeronima a note, please write it on a piece paper, put it in an envelope. Mark Unbound & who it's for, drop it in the collection basket and I will be sure to put it in their Christmas greeting.

New Bulletin Deadline

Normal deadline for bulletin submissions is

Now on Monday

This has been changed due to the increase of events here and at other parishes. If you have a dated event to be put in the bulletin if at all possible, please submit 2-3 weeks before the event. Coming up on the holiday season, there will be even earlier deadlines, which will be published ahead of time.

Thank you for your help!

Submit to: bulletin@sacredheartwebster.org

We ask your forgiveness in advance for any errors.

SACRED RELICS OF THE SAINTS

Treasures of the Church

Save The Date: November 28, 2021 - 2pm
In the Main Church

Treasures of the Church is a ministry of evangelization of the Catholic Church. Run by Fr. Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross, its purpose is to give people an experience of the living God through an encounter with the relics of his saints in the form of an exposition. Each exposition begins with a multi-media presentation on the Church's use of relics that is scriptural, catechetical, and devotional, leading to a renewal of the Catholic faith for many people. After the teaching those in attendance have an opportunity to venerate the relics of some of their favorite saints. An exposition involves some 150 relics, including those of St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. The supreme highlight is one of the largest relics of the Church's claim to the True Cross in the world and a piece of the Veil that, according to sanctioned tradition, is believed to have belonged to Our Lady.

The veneration of relics is a communion with the heroes of our Christian faith, asking for their powerful intercession. Many people have reported outstanding blessings and conversions through this ministry, and many have reported healings. Attendees are encouraged to bring their articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members which may be touched to the reliquaries as a means of intercessory prayer.

The ministry travels throughout the world by invitation. To date, it has been hosted in almost 200 Catholic dioceses in various countries.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

A PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH, DEFENDER OF LIFE

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home.

As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, You never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you.

May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life--especially where it is vulnerable or threatened.

Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen

Prayer to God the Father of All Life

Eternal God, You have revealed Yourself as the Father of all Life. We praise You for the Fatherly care which You extend to all creation, and especially to us, made in Your image and likeness.

Father, extend Your hand of protection to those threatened by abortion, and save them from its destructive power. Give Your strength to all fathers, that they may never give in to the fears that may tempt them to facilitate abortions.

Bless our families and bless our land, that we may have the joy of welcoming and nurturing the life of which You are the source and the Eternal Father.

Amen.

On October 16th we received a letter from Jeronima written by her daughter-in-law Magaly. Be sure to put Christmas greeting in the collection basket to be passed on to all the people we sponsor!!

September 16, 2021

Dear Sacred Heart Parish

I greet you very cordially, hoping in God you are enjoying very good health. I am Magaly, daughter-in-law of Jeronima, and I write for you; thank God, she is in very good health.

My mother-in-law thanks you for having her in your prayers and for the valuable help that you give to her, so she can buy her food.

My mother-in-law says that many people still cannot meet in her church, and here in Guatemala, they have not stopped wearing a mask, and now with the vaccine, they say that those who do not have the covid-19 vaccine cannot enter any center to buy commercial or supermarket.

My mother-in-law is happy that you liked her cactus plant a lot since she takes good care of them. She says that she really liked the photos of the flowers that you send to her, which are very beautiful, as well as thanks for the photo of Robin.

Well, the weather is cold here since we are in winter, and it rains a lot, and there is a lot of wind.

Well, my mother-in-law says goodbye to you and your family, hoping you are healthy; may God always protects you from that pandemic.

Your sponsored friend, Jeronima

Written by her daughter-in-law, Magaly

COMING HOME TO CHURCH 1

The Obligation to Attend Mass

Do you remember when our churches were essentially closed at the start of the pandemic? No more than ten people were allowed to enter for Mass and then the doors were locked.

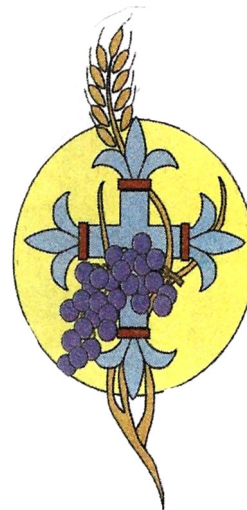

On just such a day, as I was heading to church for the broadcast of the TV Mass, I met a familiar parishioner outside the doors. “I’m sorry,” I apologized to him, “I’m not allowed to let you in.” He smiled and said, “No problem, Father,” I just stand out here at 10am every Sunday, knowing that Mass is going on inside. It gives me great comfort to know I’m so close to Jesus coming to help his Church in these dark days.”

This man’s great faith is reflected in the hearts of all those who long to safely return to church, now that the pandemic has lessened, at least for a time. We hunger to be together, remembering that Jesus said “Where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in the midst of them.”

We hunger to be fed with his Word proclaimed to us, especially in the Gospel. We hunger to eat his Body and drink his Blood in Holy Communion. We hunger to be the people he has gathered to himself, nourished by the Body and Blood of his Son and filled with his Holy Spirit, becoming one body, one spirit in Christ.”¹

This hunger grows out of a response to the Lord’s own command at the Last Supper to “Do this in memory of me” and is a fulfillment of the commandment to keep holy the Lord’s Day. That’s why the law of the Church requires us to participate in Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation.² For the Mass is the source and summit of our lives and without it we simply cannot live.

From the day you received your First Holy Communion, the Lord has been feeding your soul from the inside out. Gathered with all your brothers and sisters before the Altar and Cross, you have been nourishing you with his Word and Sacrament. The Lord waits to join you to himself in the great Sacrifice of Praise which is our salvation in fulfillment of the joyful obligation to celebrate this holy and living Sacrifice.

² Code of Canon Law, canon 920 §1.

Mass will be held on :
Monday November 1st at 8 a.m.
Location: In the Main Church

Pope Gregory III consecrated a chapel at St. Peter's Basilica to all the saints, as well, with an anniversary date of Nov. 1. Rome adopted Nov. 1 as the date of the feast of All Saints in the eighth century, and in the ninth century Pope Gregory IV extended that observance to the whole of the Latin Church.

Now, centuries later, All Saints' Day is a holy day of obligation and recognized as one of the most important feasts on the liturgical calendar. However, the celebration of Halloween typically overshadows the commemoration of All Saints' Day.

Most of us realize that Halloween is in reality the vigil of All Saints' ("Allhallows Eve" or "Hallow E'en"), but All Saints' Day itself has become a bit of an afterthought.

It shouldn't be this way! The saints are our friends, our intercessors, our brothers and sisters in Christ. They care deeply for us, and their lives are recognized by the Church as exemplary, as models to follow.

So how can we celebrate this wonderful feast of All Saints' Day?

Whether you are commemorating individually or in a group or a family, there are many ways to observe this solemnity. The most obvious is: Go to Mass! It is a holy day of obligation, and there is no more appropriate way to commemorate the saintly lives of those who have gone before us than the eucharistic sacrifice.

It is also good to do other liturgical or prayerful things to mark the day: Pray the Divine Office for All Saints' Day; read the lives of the saints; watch a movie about a saint; pray the litany of saints; think back to your confirmation saint and study that saint's life.

Similarly, if any of your children share the name of a saint, learn about that saint together: Read about the saint and pray together, asking for the saint's intercession.

There are also a number of creative and fun games that can be played to help celebrate All Saints' Day. Try putting on a play of the life of a saint (many Halloween costumes can be repurposed to be saints costumes). There are books for all ages, coloring books and even comic books featuring the saints.

All Saints' Day is the perfect time to pray to all these holy men and women, asking for their intercession for the conversion of sinners, so that we might all become saints.

Mass will be held on :
Tuesday November 2nd at 8 a.m.
Location: In the Guadalupe Chapel

Nov. 2 is All Souls Day, the special day in the liturgical year set aside to pray for the dead.

But why pray for the dead? There is no need to pray for those who have died and gone straight to heaven.

This feast presumes that some who die are imperfectly purified of their sinfulness, and while assured of the eventual benefits of eternal life, are barred from immediate access to heaven.

Instead, they are held in an unknown place where they are cleansed of their sinfulness, and after an indeterminate time, are finally released to take their place at God's throne.

For centuries, Catholics have said that purgatory is the intermediate place of temporary punishment and purification, and that the length of time spent there is based upon the number and seriousness of one's sins. The church defined this doctrine at the Second Council of Lyons (1274), the Council of Florence (1439) and the Council of Trent (1545-1563).

PURGATORY IN CATECHISM

The term, purgatory, still exists in church literature today (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1030-1032) despite the fact that it is not mentioned in the Bible. Two New Testament verses allude to a cleansing fire (1 Corinthians 3:15 and 1 Peter 1:7), and they have served as the basis for the concept of purgatory, which evolved from the fifth to 13th centuries.

Today, the church is more inclined to speak about "The Final Purification" (Documents of Vatican II, The Dogmatic Constitution of the Church, Lumen Gentium, No. 51).

A key biblical basis for praying for the dead is found in the Old Testament (2 Maccabees 12:38-46). On this All Souls Day or any time throughout the month of November, please consider reserving some time to pray for the dead.

Father Michael Van Sloun is pastor of St. Stephen in Anoka.
