June 12, 2022 - The Most Holy Trinity

In creative celebration of the Most Holy Trinity, pray a rosary with creation. Find a quiet place outside or sit near a window. Contemplate the amazing Divine Gift that is before you. Admire it. Study it. Become one with it. Ask for the guidance of Brother St. Francis as you pray: "You, Holy Father, are King of heaven and earth. You are three in one, God above all gods. You are good, all good, and supreme good, Lord God, living and true. You are love. You are beauty. You are gentleness. You are joy. You are hope and happiness." Admire the wonder and majesty of God in all that is around you. Ask for wisdom and understanding.

Begin each decade with the Our Father and conclude with the Glory Be.

Decade one: Contemplate God the Father. As you pray each bead with a Hail Mary, get lost in the grandeur of all that you see. Imagine the thousands and thousands of years of history that is before you. Envision a time when nothing existed. What is nothing? Lift your eyes, heart, and soul to the power and magnificence of the universe, its expanse and its endlessness. You are one with it all. God's creative power.

Decade two: Contemplate God the Son. Behold the squirrels, birds, and critters all conducting life's business. They have heartbeats just like yours. Praying each bead, become one with the incarnate divine life that flows through you and flows with the smallest of creatures. It is holy innocence and blessed life. Tenderness. Compassion, Mercy. Reverence. All want to be held, have a home, and be loved. God in all things. Emmanuel.

Decade three: Contemplate God the Holy Spirit. The changing of times and seasons happens often without notice. It is all within God's care and guided. We all belong. Behold the living, dying, and rising to new life. You are one with all time from beginning into eternity.

Decade Four: Contemplate God as One.

Decade Five: Contemplate God as three. All different while remaining one. The divine dance is being danced before you. Rest in what you see. Become what you see. We are all connected: God of the Holy Trinity, creation, our brothers and sisters, the animals, and the plants.

The rosary you have prayed celebrates the circle of connectedness and the intimate relationship we share with all things: a glimpse of the Trinity.

Sin: The Rest of the Story

This is the final installment in what has turned out to be a four-part series on sin. In case you missed one or more of the first three parts, let me summarize. Sin is bad. Serious sin is really bad, and less serious sin is also bad, but not as bad as serious sin.

Sin is bad because it either damages or breaks our relationship with God. Our relationship with God started when God created us, and was formally initiated in Baptism. The first sacrament, Baptism both cleanses us from Original Sin and unites us with Christ, who rose from His tomb into new and glorious eternal life. (The water is the tomb in Baptismal symbolism. We rise from under the water — symbolically at least — and find ourselves clothed in God’s love and in the promise of eternal life.)

As a side note, Original Sin is often described as a “mark” on our soul. Maybe it is, but I’m not so sure that a soul can have a mark on it. What I am sure of is that the fact that the first humans used their uniquely human gift of free will to act willfully against God’s command illustrates that we have the capacity to reject God within us from the beginning of our life. Whether it’s a mark or a characteristic, it’s something we would want to resolve against, and Baptism ritualizes that resolve. (If the image of a mark on the soul is better for your faith life, go with it. We use human imagery to help us understand God, whom we cannot fully understand.)

The good news about sin is that we are not stuck with it. When we come to our senses, we can seek and receive God’s complete forgiveness. There are several occasions where this is readily available to us.

In cases of less serious (venial) sin, a sincere Act of Contrition (recognizing and despising our sinfulness, expressing sorrow, resolving to sin no more, and asking forgiveness) forgives our sins — the less serious of them. Further, according to the Catechism (#1452), an Act of Contrition sincerely and intentionally made also forgives serious sin, provided there is a firm resolution to follow up with the Sacrament of Reconciliation as soon as possible afterwards.

There are numerous Acts of Contrition known to Catholics; you can find them online. But you can also improvise, provided you include the points listed just above.

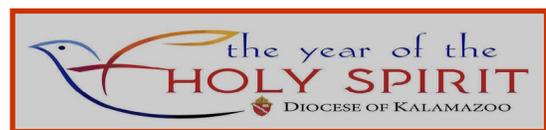

The Penitential Rite of the Mass — whether it is the Confiteor (“I confess to Almighty God...”) or one of the forms that use “Lord, have mercy...” — forgives venial or less serious sins, if prayed with intent and sincerity.

Interestingly, receiving Holy Communion with sincerity and intent forgives less serious sins. (I was as surprised as you. But it’s in the Catechism, #1416)

Communion with the Body and Blood of Christ increases the communicant’s union with the Lord, forgives his venial sins, and preserves him from grave sins.

It is always God who forgives our sins, but it is in the Sacrament of Reconciliation where we experience in human terms the assurance of mercy and forgiveness: “God the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

There are no sweeter words to hear, when we have come to a moment of recognition that we have failed our loving God through our own fault. How blessed we are that God’s forgiveness is so readily available to us, if only we admit our wrongdoing and seek His mercy.

Movie Night — “Unplanned”
Thursday, June 23 • 6:30-8:00 p.m.
St. Basil Parish- Upper Level

This short film speaks to one of the most polarizing topics of today. Unplanned brings us an eye opening look inside the abortion industry through one woman’s inspiring, true story of transformation. All ages over 16 are welcome and encouraged to attend.

*The word of the LORD came to me:
“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you.” Jeremiah 1:4-5*

For this reason, life at every stage has immeasurable value and beauty. Lord, we pray, help us accept your creation.

Congrats

La Corresponsabilidad Diaria

Preparado para el trabajo

¿As tenido alguna vez un trabajo para el que no te sentías calificado? Creo que todos lo hemos hecho, ya fuera un trabajo remunerado o no. Cuando no nos sentimos calificados, no queremos hacer el trabajo. Nos quedamos atrapados en nuestro propio miedo. Ese es el lugar donde nacen los deseos de dejarlo para después, las dudas y la amargura. Cuando miramos hacia adentro a nuestras propias habilidades, solo podemos ver todos los rasgos que no existen. La inteligencia, la destreza, la ambición, sea lo que sea que nos falte, nos quedamos atrapados.

Tengo buenas y malas noticias. Comenzaré con las malas noticias: ninguno de nosotros está calificado para el llamado del discipulado. Simplemente no lo estamos. No tenemos el amor, la gracia o la fuerza para hacer el trabajo.

Ahora te daré las buenas noticias: Dios lo sabe y no le importa. La corresponsabilidad no insiste en que poseamos todas las buenas cualidades; no, como forma de vida, la corresponsabilidad reconoce que carecemos de tantas cualidades. Pero nos muestra dónde encontrar el amor, la gracia y la fuerza que necesitamos. La corresponsabilidad no exige que sepamos todas las respuestas; simplemente nos recuerda a quién preguntar cuando no las tenemos.
