-First Reading

Exodus 17:8-13

The book of Exodus tells of the Israelites' escape from Egypt and their journey to the Promised Land. Along the way, they often had to battle local tribes who tried to keep them from passing through their territory. Today we hear an account of one such incident.

-Second Reading

2 Timothy 3: 14-4:2

In today's reading from second Timothy, the author continues to warn against false teaching. This passage also provides the biblical foundation for our belief about the inspiration of the Bible.

Your God is gentle and mild. God does not command that while you are a pilgrim on earth you must utterly forgo creaturely consolations. But God did command that you use them with moderation, sobriety and cheerfulness with the needy; that your possessions not be your master but you theirs; and that you use them to attain God.

-St. Robert Bellarmine
