LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

While we have to be cognizant of our societal and personal responsibilities in this world, we can never lose sight of where our true citizenship lies — heaven. When we become too immersed in earthly things and too preoccupied with our temporal responsibilities, we can actually become numb to our faith. Becoming ambivalent about our faith, our belief in Jesus Christ and the promises of heaven become more a source of agitation rather than a source of promise and hope. It is easy to become an enemy of Christ without even knowing it is happening. God has given us a very clear destiny. We are definitely not meant to conform ourselves to this world but to the transfiguration and glorification of our bodies to come. It is here where we can see clearly not only who God is but who we are. The way many conduct the daily business of their lives suggests that such a promise or hope is of little importance. What does the way you live your daily life say about you?

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 – 493) is a well-known saint around the world.

St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped back to Britain on a ship, where he was eventually reunited with his family.

His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

In the covenant established between God and Abram (Abraham), the trust and faith of Abraham is described as “an act of righteousness.” As we continue the season of Lent, what do you need to trust in from the Lord?

Second Reading:

Paul urges the believers in Philippi to stay focused on Jesus and on our “citizenship” in heaven. How do you think Christians today can succeed in living out this task?

Gospel:

Peter, John, and James witness the transfiguration that revealed Jesus’ divinity. Why do you think the three apostles “fell silent” from this encounter?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA (Live the Liturgy)

Si bien tenemos que ser conscientes de nuestras responsabilidades sociales y personales en este mundo, nunca podemos perder de vista dónde se encuentra nuestra verdadera ciudadanía: el cielo. Cuando nos sumergimos demasiado en las cosas terrenales y nos preocupamos demasiado por nuestras responsabilidades temporales, podemos volvernos insensibles a nuestra fe. El volvernos ambivalentes acerca de nuestra fe, nuestra creencia en Jesucristo y las promesas del cielo se convierten más en una fuente de agitación que en una fuente de promesa y esperanza. Es fácil convertirse en enemigo de Cristo sin siquiera saber que está sucediendo. Dios nos ha dado un destino muy claro. Definitivamente no estamos destinados a conformarnos a este mundo sino a la transfiguración y glorificación de nuestros cuerpos por venir. Es aquí donde podemos ver claramente no solo quién es Dios, sino quiénes somos nosotros. La forma en que muchos llevan a cabo las actividades diarias de sus vidas sugiere que tal promesa o esperanza es de poca importancia. ¿Qué dice de ti la forma en que vives tu vida diaria?

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA REFLEXIONAR Y RESPONDER (Questions of the Week)

Primera Lectura:

En el pacto establecido entre Dios y Abram (Abraham), la confianza y la fe de Abraham se describen como "un acto de justicia." A medida que continuamos la temporada de Cuaresma, ¿qué necesitas confiar del Señor?

Segunda Lectura:

Pablo insta a los creyentes de Filipo a permanecer enfocados en Jesús y en nuestra “ciudadanía” en el cielo. ¿Cómo crees que los cristianos de hoy pueden tener éxito en llevar a cabo esta tarea?

Evangelio:

Pedro, Juan y Santiago son testigos de la transfiguración que reveló la divinidad de Jesús. ¿Por qué crees que los tres apóstoles “guardaron silencio” de este encuentro?
