Third Sunday in Ordinary Time ©
1 Cor 12:1-30, or Cor 12:12-14.27; Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Have you ever lost something and then, after some time passes, finally found it? Perhaps your keys, a cell phone, or worse still, a credit card. When we find utilitarian items that we've lost or misplaced, we're so relieve and happy because we need these things for daily living. Then we're really in trouble.

The people to whom Nehemiah was speaking lost more than something material; they lost the key to who they were as a people. They lost the law of God that had been given to them through Moses hundreds of years before. They were now listening to it for the first time. Upon hearing its wisdom and prescriptions, they were cult to the heart and wept. There was so much they had forgotten and were no longer practicing. As exiles in Babylon they had lost so much.

Yet the response toward this rediscovery could have been joy, because now they knew once again what made for happiness and living in the Lord. They had discovered the love that called then into existence.

We have been given the Holy Spirit who leads us into all truth and reminds us of everything Jesus taught us in Scriptures and Tradition. Knowing God's truth is the deepest source of joy. Finding him is like finding what was lost. Like the found key. God unlocks our happiness. Like a cell phone, he gives us constant connection with him. And like a credit card—but infinitely better—God is the love that fulfills our desires. And we never have to pay him back.

Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

May the Mother of Jesus, and our Mother, always smile on you and obtain for you, from her Most Holy Son, every heavenly blessing. Pray to Our Mother Mary.

What is the symbolic relationship between the altar and the Eucharist.

The altar, also called the table of the Lord, is not just a piece of furniture. Many generations ago, our earliest Christian ancestors gathered at dining-room tables for the Eucharist, and through the centuries that simple piece of furniture came alive with deep meaning.

It is from the altar that we share in the Eucharist, and the altar is consecrated by a Bishop and anointed with chrism, just as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king.

The gestures and rituals of the Catholic Church shape the expression of our faith and our hearts. We bow and genuflect to express reverence, honor, and devotion. These gestures are used not only by Roman Catholics and other Christians, but by people of other faiths, including Jews, Muslims, and Buddhists.

After the priest raises and shows the consecrated host and chalice to the assembly, he genuflects, and any concelebrants bow to the host and chalice. Norms exist for bowing to the altar and, at some points of the Eucharistic celebration, kissing the altar. The kiss is an intimate act of showing reverence and honor.

The altar is a tangible sign of Christ and his sacrifice. We bow to the altar during the Eucharistic liturgy and outside of the Mass as well, because for Catholics it's the central place of our encounter with Christ and with the great communion of saints.

The Diocese of Sacramento has issued these directives: The Communion Cup is suspended temporarily, receive the Body of Christ in the hand. Do not shake hands, say "peace be with you", do not hold hand during the Our Father. We will resume as the Bishop deems its safe and prudent to do so.

New parishioners & summer people we would really appreciate it if you would fill out the white card on the hall table with you name, address here and if you have another address, also your email address and phone. It would help keep in touch with all of you. Also pick up your offering envelopes.

Please take a moment and say a prayer for all our sick parishioners. Come say the Rosary every Sunday morning at 9am.

Pray for the Sick and Deceased

Prayer is the best armor we have,
It is the key which opens the heart of God. St. Padre Pio
