
Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water.

LISTEN TO THE VOICE OF GOD

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

"Vanity of vanities." Sometimes we may work for wealth, wisdom and knowledge only to discover that it has been left for some one who did not toil for it. The offering of our work, fatigue and pain, if not for God, can also be a kind of vanity.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Paul urges us to seek what is good and from God, encouraging us to put our minds on the spiritual. He reminds us that, as Christians , we have died with Christ and are hidden with Christ until his glory is once again revealed. We are all one in Christ.

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

On being requested to settle a question of inheritance, Jesus heeds us to beware of all covetousness because our life does not consist on the wealth of possessions. Through the lesson of a parable Jesus reinforces this teaching, explaining that those who store up the treasures of wealth and possessions are not the richest in God's eyes.

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Remember in your prayers the members of our Armed Services, especially 2nd Lt Matthew Blejwas US Army, grandson of Walter and Kathryn Blejwas, John F. Stahl of the US Army, son, Joseph Stahl of the US Navy, grandson, and Eric Hummel of the US Army, nephew of Ruth Stahl; Jordan Weaver of the Air Force, husband of Christy (LaPointe) Weaver; John Walker and Nicholas Furtzaig of the Air Force, grandsons of Bernard & Joan O'Reilly, Tim Kearney of the US Army, son of Jim and Karen Kearney and grandson of Eleanor and Ed Van Arsdale, 2nd Lt. Chase Desiderio Taub US Army, godson of Gloria LaGrassa.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

LECTIO DIVINA

All are welcome to join us in prayer and in preparing for Sunday mass by practicing Lectio Divina. This unique form of prayer where we meditate on the Word of God has been taught by the Church for centuries. St. John Paul II, said that it is critical that we cultivate a genuine life of prayer. Pope Benedict XVI defined Lectio as an essential tool to bring us to a closer to God. The parish offers Lectio Tuesday evenings in the Parish Center starting at approximately 7:20 PM (after the Rosary and Novena in St. Brigid Church). Email us at Lectio@sainteb.org with any questions or simply come join us.

WORD OF LIFE

"A woman with an unexpected pregnancy may have any number of fears and challenges: facing judgment from her friends and family, losing her job or housing, or being abandoned by the father of her child. Following Mary's example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children."

MONSIGNOR PULEO SHARED THIS ON JULY 16-17

An old prayer of the Church …

Direct, we beseech thee, O Lord,
our prayers and our actions by thy holy inspirations
and carry them on by thy gracious assistance,
so that every work of ours may always begin with thee and through thee be happily ended.

PRAYER TO FIGHT CANCER
AUTHOR REV. JOHN G. HILLIER 2021

Dearest Lord Jesus, our Divine Physician, fill your servants with your healing presence
as they do their part to fight this horrifying disease within them.
Shine your healing power into their bodies, hearts and souls.

With humility, as they seek your comfort and mercy,
allow the best of who they are as your followers,
to remain optimistic for the sake of their families, friends and others they have yet to meet.

With the help of your Holy Spirit, remove all cancerous invaders that have overrun their bodies; your temple.
Replace all deadly, cancer cells with good, wholesome cells.

Aided by the powerful intercession of your heavenly helpers,
Our Lady, Queen of Peace, Saint John Paul II and Blessed Michael McGivney, keep them steadfast in the hope — that "whatever you ask from the Father He will give it to you" (John 15:23).

In Jesus Name, Amen.

NEW JERSEY SAFE HAVEN LAW

Under the New Jersey Safe Haven Infant Protection Act a person may give up an unwanted infant anonymously. The purpose of Safe Haven is to protect unwanted babies from being hurt or killed from unsafe abandonment. A distressed parent who is unable to care for an infant can give up custody of a baby less than 30 days old safely, legally and anonymously. All that is required is that the baby be brought to any hospital emergency room, police station, fire station, ambulance, first aid, and rescue squads in New Jersey that are staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week. As long as the child shows no signs of intentional abuse, no name or other information is required. The parent can call the Safe Haven Hotline - 1-877-839-2339 - and get the address and directions for any hospital emergency room, police station, fire station, ambulance, first aid, and rescue squad in the state.

PRAYER FOR THE CANONIZATION OF BLESSED MICHAEL MCGIVNEY FOUNDER OF THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor.
Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the church.
Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us
to greater confidence in your love
so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast.
We humbly ask that you
glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth
according to the design of your holy will.
Through his intercession, grant the favor
I now present (here make your request).
Through Christ our Lord. Amen

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED

Walking with Moms in Need is a time of service in which Catholic parishes and communities "walk in the shoes" of local pregnant and parenting women in need. Everyone should know how to help moms in difficult circumstances. While not trying to turn Catholic parishes into pregnancy centers, we can support local pregnancy centers where they exist, and we can also find and we can also find and share other resources with pregnant and parenting women.

And where there are few local resources, we can create our own, based on the gifts of the parish community! We hope you will join us in Walking with Moms in Need.

7 SUMMER TIPS FOR CATHOLIC PARENTS

1.) Pray – If you've read any of my other lists here at Catholic-Link, you've probably noticed that I always include prayer. It's so basic, yet in the chaos of family life can easily be neglected. Schedule prayer time not only for yourself but also for your children.

2.) Make a Summer Bucket List. – This has been key to our summers for the past five years. During the first week of summer vacation, we sit down as a family and make a list of the things that we all hope to do.

Our list has included everything from having a lemonade stand to a fun vacation destination. We always include simple service projects like making cookies for the neighbors or writing letters to our sponsored child. We include something for everyone to enjoy and keep it realistic, but fun.

3.) Read a lot. – Don't let your children forget all that they've learned during the school year over the summer. Make time for reading every day and pick a good book to read together as a family.

Library programs help to keep kids focused and motivated. There are countless benefits to reading aloud to your children, even children who ca n read on their own.

4.) Play outside. – Everyone feels better with fresh air and exercise. The old-fashioned parenting technique of sending kids outside and not allowing them to come back in until dusk has some merit. It's good for kids to get "bored" This is typically when they end up having the most fun.

5.) Time To Relax. – Rainy days spent in PJs watching movies, sleeping in, or playing (gasp!) video games can be a real treat. Of course, you don't want too much screen time, but after a busy school year full of activities and homework it's important to let everyone (including you!) take a break.

6.) Vacation – Studies continually show that experiences bring more joy than things. Save your money for adventures. You don't have to go far. Planning a staycation from your own home works, just be sure to step away from work and other activities to enjoy your family.

7.) Make it to Mass – It should go without saying, but summer vacation does not mean a vacation from Mass. Keep this your priority no matter what season we're in!
