SALVE REGINA COELITUM

Reading the Scriptures, we learn from our Lord and those he encounters how we are to live as people of faith, as Christians. Last Sunday, Fr. Vincent emphasized the importance of saying “thank you!” Everything that we have received is a grace, and we need to turn to God and those around us in humble gratitude for all that we receive from them. This lesson of gratitude is powerfully illustrated by St. Luke in chapter 17:12-19 of his gospel. There we hear of the ten lepers who were healed by Our Lord. These ten men with leprosy stood at a distance, understanding the law that forbade them to have contact with the people who did not have the disease. Rather than heal them immediately, Jesus tests their faith by asking them to go and see the priest. It is while they are on their way that they are all healed. However, only one returns to express his gratitude and show his faith in the Lord.

Following the example of that one who received his life renewed and restored from Jesus, I would like to express my gratitude to all of you. Thank you, dear parishioners of Holy Rosary Edmonds, for the love, kindness, and care you have shown, and continue to show, to the people of Malawi and, in particular, the people of St. Mary’s Parish. I extend this gratitude to you with a humble heart on behalf of my Bishop in Malawi, the Diocese of Mangochi, and on behalf of St. Mary’s Parish.

You have generously, with beautiful hearts, donated to the well project. In total, we have raised $47,238.85! With these donations we will be drilling seven more wells in addition to the two already in progress. In total we will be able to do nine wells! I am humbled, and glory to God, the people of Malawi and St. Mary’s Parish are healed, for now they will have clean water and will no longer suffer. Water is life and he or she who gives you water gives you life.

The month of May is also the month of beginning our Annual Catholic Appeal for the Archdiocese of Seattle. The goal set for our parish by the Archdiocese this year is $168,675. Any amount raised above this will go to projects at our parish. In particular, we have the project of lighting the parish in areas which are not yet lit and are very dark whenever night falls. I humbly ask each of you to prayerfully and kindly give towards our annual appeal to support the Archdiocese's charitable works, as well as the continued development of our beautiful parish facility. Blessed is the hand that gives and the name of the Lord is praised through their hand.

In this month of May also, as we celebrate our Mothers, let us keep them in our prayers and ask Our Mother Mary to intercede for them.

In Christ,

Father Dominic

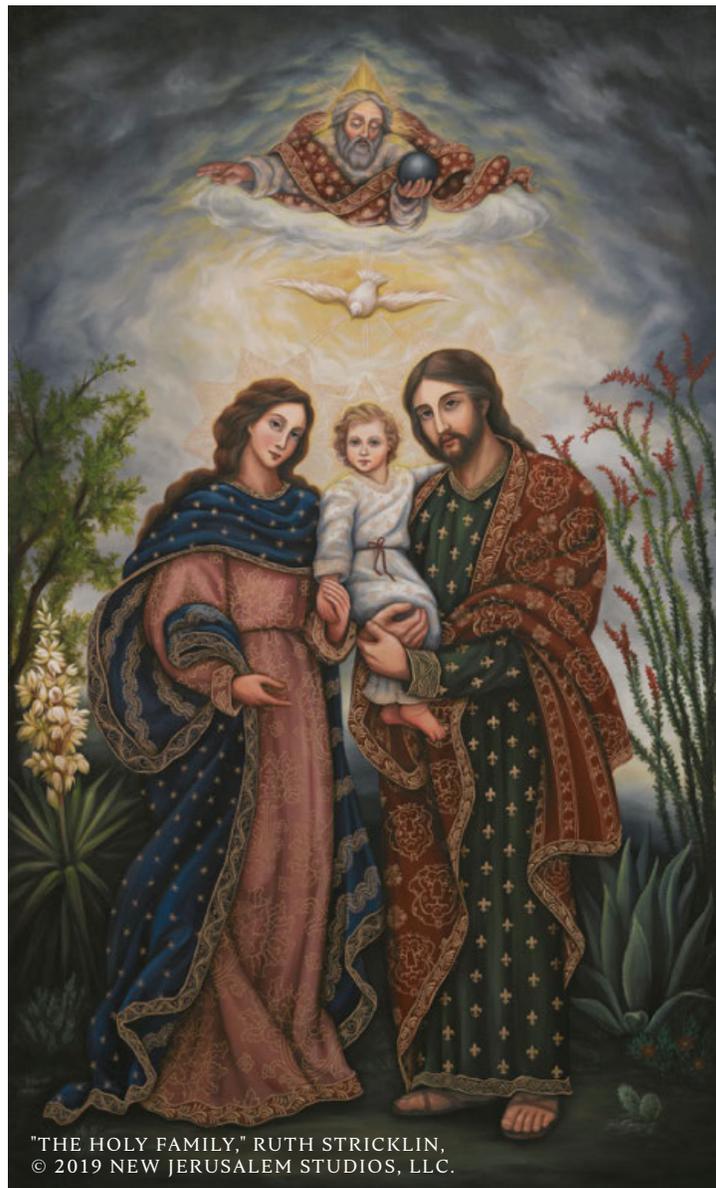

Among the numerous visions St Faustina had of Our Lord Jesus Christ and the Blessed Virgin Mary, we encounter an interesting fact that there were rare circumstances wherein the holy Polish nun could see St Joseph. Furthermore, on one occasion, this most zealous defender of Christ did speak to the secretary of the Divine Mercy! The first moment when St Faustina beheld St Joseph was on February 2nd, 1936. On this day we celebrate the feast of the Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple. In entry 608 of her Diary, St Faustina writes:

When Mass began, a strange silence and joy filled my heart. Just then, I saw Our Lady with the Infant Jesus, and the Holy Man St Joseph standing behind them. The most holy Mother said to me: "Take my dearest Treasure..." and she handed me the Infant Jesus. When I took the Infant Jesus in my arms, the Mother of God and St Joseph disappeared. I was left alone with the Infant Jesus.

Typical of this apparition is what St Faustina describes as a strange silence. This uncommon silence reminds us of Joseph as the silent man. In that sense, we can easily detect the figure of Joseph as being that of a sound teacher of the interior life. Really beautiful is what St Pope John Paul II had to say about what he called, aura of silence, in his apostolic exhortation on the person and mission of Saint Joseph in the life of Christ and of the Church, Redemptoris Custos, of August 15, 1989:

The same aura of silence that envelops everything else about Joseph also shrouds his work as a carpenter in the house of Nazareth. It is, however, a silence that reveals in a special way the inner portrait of the man. The Gospels speak exclusively of what Joseph 'did.' Still, they allow us to discover in his 'actions' – shrouded in silence as they are – an aura of deep contemplation. Joseph was in daily contact with the mystery 'hidden from ages past,' and which 'dwelt' under his roof. This explains, for example, why St Teresa of Jesus, the great reformer of the Carmelites, promoted the renewal of veneration to St Joseph in Western Christianity (no.25)

In this perspective the question begs to be asked: In today's Church and world what we need most, people who lose their interior splendor in idle talking and empty promises or people who, like Joseph of Nazareth, let their actions speak loud about their total submission to God in his Church and to the entire human family?

The second moment when St Faustina had direct contact with the Chaste Protector of the Virgin, was on Christmas day of 1936. St Faustina records her experience in entry 846 of her Diary: During Midnight Mass, God's presence pierced me through and through. A moment before the Elevation (of the Host) I saw the Mother of God, the Infant Jesus, and the good man St Joseph.

In this entry St Faustina calls St Joseph the good man. In his apostolic letter on the 150th anniversary of the proclamation of St Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, Patris Corde, Pope Francis, in footnote 10 of his letter, presents a very intriguing observation concerning a prayer taken from a nineteenth-century French prayer book. This prayer revolves around St Joseph's goodness.

Every day, for over forty years, following Lauds I have recited a prayer to Saint Joseph taken from a nineteenth-century French prayer book of the Congregation of the Sisters of Jesus and Mary. It expresses devotion and trust, and even poses a certain challenge to Saint Joseph: 'Glorious Patriarch Saint Joseph, whose power makes the impossible possible, come to my aid in these times of anguish and difficulty. Take under your protection the serious and troubling situations that I commend to you, that they may have a happy outcome. My beloved father, all my trust is in you. Let it not be said that I invoked you in vain, and since you can do everything with Jesus and Mary, show me that your goodness is as great as your power. Amen.' (Footnote 10).

Can we let St Joseph's goodness help us grow in our devotion and trust in his powerful intercession? Do we really believe that his intercession can help us sailing through these current rough waters of anguish and difficulty towards a happy outcome?

The third instance where St Faustina came into direct contact with St Joseph was on July 30, 1937. In Diary entry 1203 she writes:

Saint Joseph urged me to have a constant devotion to him. He himself told me to recite three prayers (the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be) and the Memorare to St. Joseph once every day. He looked at me with great kindness and let me know how much he is supporting this work (of mercy). He has promised me his special help and protection. I recite the requested prayers every day and feel his special protection.

The last experience St Faustina mentions in her Diary when she met St Joseph, took place on December 25, 1937. She recorded this mystical experience in entry 1442 of her Diary in the following manner:

When I arrived at Midnight Mass, from the very beginning

I steeped myself in deep recollection, during which time I saw the stable of Bethlehem filled with great radiance. The Blessed Virgin, all lost in the deepest of love, was wrapping Jesus in swaddling clothes, but Saint Joseph was still asleep. Only after the Mother of God put Jesus in the manger, did the light of God awaken Joseph, who was also praying. But after a while, I was left alone with the Infant Jesus who stretched out His little hands to me, and I understood that I was to take Him in my arms. Jesus pressed His head against my heart and gave me to know, by His profound gaze, how good He found it to be next to my heart. At that moment Jesus disappeared and the bell was ringing for Holy Communion.

What is striking here is that St Joseph was first asleep when Mary was wrapping Jesus in swaddling clothes and then, when she put him in the manger, God's light awakened him and immediately he started to pray. Pope Francis beautifully commented on the importance of Joseph's sleeping and praying during his discourse to families in Manila on January 16, 2015, when he said:

I have great love for St. Joseph, because he is a man of silence and strength. On my table I have an image of St. Joseph sleeping. Even when he is asleep, he is taking care of the Church! Yes! We know that he can do that. So when I have a problem, a difficulty, I write a little note and I put it underneath St. Joseph, so that he can dream about it! In other words I tell him: pray for this problem!

Next, rising with Jesus and Mary. Those precious moments of repose, of resting with the Lord in prayer, are moments we might wish to prolong. But like Saint Joseph, once we have heard God's voice, we must rise from our slumber; we must get up and act (cf. Rom 13:11). In our families, we have to get up and act! Faith does not remove us from the world, but draws us more deeply into it.

Just as the gift of the Holy Family was entrusted to Saint Joseph, so the gift of the family and its place in God's plan is entrusted to us. Like Saint Joseph. The gift of the Holy Family was entrusted to Saint Joseph so that he could care for it. Each of you, each of us – for I too am part of a family – is charged with caring for God's plan. The angel of the Lord revealed to Joseph the dangers which threatened Jesus and Mary, forcing them to flee to Egypt and then to settle in Nazareth. So too, in our time, God calls upon us to recognize the dangers threatening our own families and to protect them from harm.”

St Joseph, who accompanied Jesus and Mary, as St Faustina saw you, accompany us on our journey to our Heavenly Jerusalem. Amen.

Novena for the ministry of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd April 30 - May 8, 2022

This novena was first prayed in the spring of 2002, in the discernment process of beginning the Atrium at Saint Michael Parish in Olympia, WA. Without our planning it, the novena ended on Good Shepherd Sunday (4th Sunday of Easter).

Since that time, we have offered the novena each year, for the needs of this ministry, always ending on Good Shepherd Sunday.

Prayer

St. Charles Borromeo & St. Robert Bellarmine, we ask that you intercede for us on behalf of the work of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd in our community, region and around the world, to our God: The Father who is the vine dresser, Jesus our Good Shepherd and True Vine, and the Holy Spirit who is the sap flowing within us.

We are grateful for the work of Maria Montessori, Gianna Gobbi and Sofia Cavalletti, who through careful observation of children have helped us to know more deeply the secret of childhood, and have enhanced our understanding of Jesus' words, "Whoever does not accept the Kingdom of God like a child will not enter it."

As the ministry of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd grows we ask for counsel in our work. We long to bring people of all ages closer to Jesus and to help them understand that God is present in everyday events. We hold in prayer the preparation of atria, the formation of catechists, and the children and families this work seeks to serve. May more children and adults join this ministry, This year we lift up in a particular way our need for wisdom and compassion in addressing needs raised by the global pandemic. Help all experience a closer relationship with God.

Help us to be open to the answers and to see the path that God has laid before us. We place all our dreams, desires and longings into the hands of God who is our Redeemer. Thank you for your intercessions St. Charles Borromeo and St. Robert Bellarmine.

Our Father (3 times)

Hail Mary (3 times)

Glory be (3 times)

Maria Montessori's prayer (1 time):

Before the majesty of God I desire to consecrate myself to the service of the Catholic Church, offering myself as a holocaust to Jesus Christ our Lord. I desire to follow the path of His divine will, embracing my sweet cross with the intention so truly to live that, if it be His will, the Church of Christ, in a reformed humanity, may triumph midst the splendors of civilization. (first said before the blessed sacrament in 1910)
