

Middle School Teaching position at St. Paul School
Date: February 7, 2024

School Name: St. Paul School
School Address: 1690 Church Street, San Francisco, 94131
Contact Person: Jacqueline Curran
Position Title: Middle School Teacher
Position Type: Full Time
Salary Range: $56,000 and up (based on education and years of experience)

Job Description: We invite you to be part of a community of educators who together shape young people into respectful, engaged, academic learners in the Catholic faith. Teachers prepare students for high school and the world beyond. Our small school has a history of successful outcomes both in academics and in growing community. If you are looking for a mission driven, student-centered position, you may be the perfect fit.

St. Paul School, a K-8 Catholic Elementary School in the heart of Noe Valley is seeking a full-time teacher middle school teacher to begin August 1st. Job responsibilities include:

- Planning, instructing, and assessment of homeroom subjects in accordance with Curriculum Guidelines including Religion, Math, English Language, Social Studies, Art.
- Subject Area specific instruction in ELA or Math for sixth, seventh and eighth grade students.
- Cultivating a classroom environment for 20-24 middle school students.

Requirements/Qualifications:

- Must hold a BA from accredited college or university
- California teaching credential preferred
- Practicing Catholic preferred

Application Instructions:

- Download and complete the teacher application for employment on the Department of Catholic Schools website: <https://schools.sfarch.org/employment>
- Send letter of introduction and resume
- Include two letters of recommendation

Send the application, letter of introduction, resume and letters of recommendation to jcurran@stpaulsf.net or mail to:

St. Paul School
Attn: Principal
1690 Church Street
San Francisco, CA 94131