Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe
November 25, 2018
Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead
and ruler of the kings of the earth.
-- Revelation 1:5

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King ARE YOU OR AREN'T YOU?
Few things are as frustrating as not getting a "yes" or "no" when we have posed a "yes or no" question. Putting ourselves in Pilate's place today, we can feel his frustration in the debate with Jesus about his kingship and the source of his kingdom. Pilate was a potent and wily Roman authority; he lived by one of the primary lessons of staying in power: know exactly who your opponent is. It is doubtful that the person of Jesus of Nazareth posed much of a threat to Pilate, but what he represented as the social and religious force with which he seemed to be connected very clearly could have been. So Pilate naturally wanted to know who was standing before him, a king or not, and if so, what kind of king? Pilate wanted to know what to get ready for when dealing with this man. We would do well to make Pilate our role model in this regard. IS IT OR ISN'T IT? As Jesus rightly tells Pilate, his kingdom is not of this world. It isn't. But Christians believe that, in Jesus Christ, his kingdom has broken into the world, and continues to be made manifest in the world until the final day of his glorious return. A very early Christian term, autobasilea, was used to say that Jesus was the "kingdom-in-himself" on earth. As we, the Church, celebrate this feast of Christ our King, we recall our own mission through baptism to be "Christ's-kingdom-in-ourselves" and to do our own part to continue introducing his reign wherever it is not yet a part of this world. A look back at our whole Church year from this final Sunday will show us that this reign in Christ is one of love, of proclaiming salvation, of healing, of forgiving and reconciling, of humble service, of self-giving. We pray "Your kingdom come" because it isn't completely here yet, which is why we likewise pray "Your will be done" so that it might be. Today's Readings: Daniel 7:13-14; Psalm 93:1-2, 5; Revelation 1:5-8; John 18:33b-37

Copyright (c) 2005, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

First Reading -- One like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship (Daniel 7:13-14).
Psalm -- The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty (Psalm 93).
Second Reading -- Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead (Revelation 1:5-8).
Gospel -- For this I came into the world, to testify to the truth (John 18:33b-37).

- The personal question/action for today: What is my understanding of Jesus as the King? Do I seek to keep Jesus seated on the throne of my life? Have I pledged complete allegiance to Him? Does my life proclaim His Reign? Can people experience the freedom and holiness that flows from Jesus' reigning in my life? What can I do to extend His Reign to others so that they will experience the glory and compassion which Jesus brought through His death and resurrection?

CHRIST IS KING

On the final Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. It's easy to understand today's scriptures as events that happened long ago and far away, or predictions that will come true somewhere, some day. But they invite us to claim Christ as our King here and now. Jesus' words to Pilate in the Gospel remind us that his kingdom transcends time and place. And the prophecies from Daniel and Revelation give us reason to be faithful to Christ our King right here and right now.
By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only King over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation. No matter what nation we belong to or what language we speak, he "has made us into a kingdom" (Revelation 1:6)--one people united in love and peace for all eternity.

VETERANS DAY Celebrated
—NOV 10, 2018

The SLR community headed by the Knights of Columbus welcomed and honored our men and women who served our country beginning with a mass at 8:00am, flag raising and fellowship afterwards.
Special thanks to Fr. Elmer and all the families who have supported our veterans & active service men and women.

Our Mission Statement

As a welcoming community, we celebrate our life, conscious of our multi-ethnic traditions, vowing unity with Christ in our multi-cultural differences. We usher in our lives (being evangelized) and proclaim (as evangelizers) the reign of God as Priests, Prophets and Kings, and in so doing, we celebrate our discipleship in Christ Jesus. We extol "being Church" through the formation of Small Faith Communities as a way of life in being priests, prophets and kings; thus, we become economically stable and self-reliant as we give special attention and solicitude to our youth and the needy.

"They were faithful to the teaching of the apostles, the common life of sharing, the breaking of bread and the prayers." (Acts 2:42)

Why are we doing this campaign now?

We are the beneficiaries of the foresight and generosity of past generations who have helped to establish and build our parishes and schools over the past two centuries. It is time for renewal – and it is up to us to preserve and pass on what we have been blessed to inherit.

Our Goal: $1,155,000 Amount Raised: $784,54(68%)

How will my parish benefit from this campaign?

The primary goals of the campaign are to help parishes fulfill their mission to serve others and to share the good news of Jesus Christ. Fifty percent of every dollar raised at each parish will be returned to the parish for its own needs. Once the goal is reached, the parish will receive 100% of each dollar collected above goal. This is a tremendous opportunity for parishes to expand and strengthen their ministries and programs. Parishes will also receive additional funds for their respective deferred maintenance needs.

To all our parishioners and friends who have made their pledges to this campaign… thank you!
All are invited to participate—Called to Renew Ambassadors will be at the tables after weekend masses.

THANK YOU

"Lives will be changed, and through our faith and action, we can each answer a call for renewal…"

Get your family on the same page about social media
Social media is one of the leading forms of communication and connection in our world today, but it has dangerous side effects if used carelessly or improperly. Social media platforms can be used to solicit minors, distribute drugs, share pornography and more. If your family does not have a social media safety policy in place, work to establish one immediately. Rules such as no direct messages from anyone you don't know in person and no private or hidden contact with anyone are important. Establish regular check-ins to make sure that the rules are being followed to see what your children are viewing. Las plataformas de medios sociales pueden usarse para interceptar menores, distribuir drogas, compartir pornografía y más. Si su familia no tiene una política de seguridad en las redes sociales, trabaje para establecer una de inmediato. 2018 Christmas Eve Living Gospel Mass

Children of St. Lorenzo Ruiz Church

The Children's Choir will be singing at the 5:00 PM Christmas Eve Vigil Mass. As has been our tradition in the past, the children of our Parish will present the Living Gospel – the story of Mary and Joseph as they make their way to the stable in Bethlehem where our Savior Jesus Christ was born. Choir and Living Gospel procession begins at 4:15 PM.

Please let us know if your child would like to join in the presentation of this beautiful and holy evening. In addition to participating with the Children's Choir, participants will have the opportunity to play the part of an angel, a shepherd, a narrator, Mary or Joseph or they may choose to just sing as a member of the choir. We will also need parents to help the children with costumes, assist with all practices and before and during the Mass.

Please let me, Karen Alorro, your child's Religious Ed teacher or the church office know if your child is interested in participating and in what capacity.

Christmas Living Gospel rehearsals are as follows:

Sunday, December 9, 2018 – Parents information meetings at 10:00 AM and 12:00 PM in the Pavilion
Thursday, December 13, 2018 – 3:30 PM – 6:00 PM – Church – CHOIR AND LIVING GOSPEL PLAYERS
Tuesday, December 18, 2018 – 3:30 PM – 6:00 PM – Church – CHOIR AND LIVING GOSPEL PLAYERS
Thursday, December 20, 2018 – 3:30 PM – 6:00 PM – Church – CHOIR AND LIVING GOSPEL PLAYERS
Friday, December 21, 2018 – 3:30 PM – 6:00 PM – Church – EVERYONE – COSTUME CHECK FINAL REHEARSAL

Please call or email if you can help or if you have any questions. I look forward to sharing a wonderful Christmas Eve with the children. For more information, please join us on December 9th at 10:00 AM or 12:00 PM in the Pavilion.

Thanks and Merry Christmas!
