THE VOICE OF THE LORD

What is more delightful than the voice of the Lord calling to us?

--St. Benedict

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 7, 2019

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

-- Galatians 6:14

LA PROVIDENCIA DE DIOS

Las lecturas de hoy celebran la providencia de Dios. No importa lo maravilloso (o doloroso) que sean nuestras relaciones, Dios siempre nos provee. Nadie cuida tanto de nosotros como lo hace Dios.

Isaías nos deleita con una imagen profundamente íntima de Dios cuidándonos como una madre cuida de su hijo. El profeta nos describe no como los habituales hijos de Dios sino como bebés. No debemos resistirnos a esta imagen, sino regocijarnos con ella. Confiando en el cuidado de Dios, nosotros podemos bajar la guardia y descansar como bebés en el regazo de nuestra madre. La confianza de san Pablo en Dios le permite estar en paz. Audazmente dice que nadie puede ponerle obstáculos por que se ha entregado completamente a Jesús. Y cuando Jesús envía a sus discípulos a predicar y sanar, él los desafía a no cargar nada para ellos, sino tener fe en su guía.

Trust the past to the mercy of God, the present to his love, and the future to his providence.

- Augustine

St. Lorenzo Ruiz Devotion Ministry

Remember: EVERY TUESDAY, at 630PM, is the DEVOTION PRAYERS TO ST. LORENZO RUIZ

Note to Self: Every Tuesday @ 7:00pm is

TUESDAY HEALING MASS

If you are ill and want the community to pray over you in a special healing prayer, or if a family member has been diagnosed with a serious disease, or if emotions have run high and have taken over reason, or if someone you love needs spiritual healing---

LET US PRAY TOGETHER, FOR EACH OTHER, FOR ONE ANOTHER.

"When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick." (Matthew 14:14)

"The Lord, your God, you shall worship; then I will bless your food and drink, and I will remove all sickness from your midst." (Exodus 23:25)

GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us as a mother comforts her child. The prophet describes us not as the usual children of God, but as babies. We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can make troubles for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

- The personal question/action for today: What is my reaction when I see the marvelous “fireworks” which happen when the message of Jesus is being proclaimed? Do I focus on the spectacular displays, or do I give thanks to GOD Who has worked them in my life? How can I more effectively proclaim the GOoD News of Jesus to those whom I meet this day, this week? Do I trust GOD enough to proclaim the Gospel message without worrying about all the incidentals? Do I see GOD as a nourishing and nurturing Parent Who provides for me in all circumstances? (Bok K.)

Youth

WE GIVE SPECIAL ATTENTION AND SOLICITUDE TO OUR YOUTH

Confirmation

The confirmation program at St. Lorenzo Ruiz is a two year preparation process. It is open to high school students between the ages of 13 and 17 years old.

Students attend a weekly class session where they further explore their faith. They engage in discussions, group activities, and talks led by trained catechists. With their parents and sponsors, they attend evenings of reflection during the advent and Lenten seasons. In addition, they go on a retreat each year to help them on their spiritual journey.

Students are introduced to the community by hosting masses throughout the year. They are also asked to complete twenty service hours each year, a portion of which needs to be done at the parish. All of these combined together help to prepare each candidate to receive the sacrament of confirmation.
