It has the hands to help others.
It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy.
It has eyes to see the misery and want.

That is what love looks like."

Bible Verses

- ✓ Give me a drink (John 4:5-9)
- ✓ Living Water (John 4:10-15)
- ✓ "I Have No Husband" (John 4:16-19)
- ✓ Leaving the Jar Behind (John 4:25-30)

Wrap-up Reflection

An encounter with Christ, like the one the Samaritan woman experienced, leads to receiving the living water. Jesus' divine timing is evident in meeting her at noon, a moment when she was alone and overlooked. Having been with many men, her life reflects an ongoing search for fulfillment. In Scripture, seven often symbolizes completeness, and her encounter with Jesus shows that true fullness is found not in people, but in Him.

By asking about her husbands, Jesus gently brings her brokenness into the light. He invites her to look within, not for condemnation, but for restoration. Her decision to tell others about Jesus is evidence that the spring of eternal life was now living within her.

The same invitation is given to us. When we come to Christ, we are filled, and that life overflows to others. As Jesus declares in John 6:35, "I am the bread of

Discussion Questions

- ✓ In John 4, both Jesus and the Samaritan woman speak about "water," yet they mean very different things. What kind of water do you think the woman is initially seeking, and what does Jesus mean when He offers "living water"?
- ✓ Jesus uses water as an image for the deep longings of the human heart. What do you think people are thirsting for in our culture today, and what are some common ways people try to satisfy those thirsts?
- ✓ Turning inward, what are you currently searching for or longing after? Is there a desire or need in your life that feels unmet?
- ✓ Augustine wrote, "You have made us for yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in you." Do you believe Jesus is the answer to our deepest thirsts? Why or why not, and how does that belief shape the way you live?

See You All
