Letter from the Pastor

We welcome Bishop McManus, Bishop Reilly and the Boston Archdiocesan Gospel Choir for our Lenten gathering this Sunday at the 5:15 p.m. mass.

This annual gathering gives us the opportunity to be lifted up and transformed.

We welcome Bishop McManus, Mayor Petty, Senator Harriet Chandler, and District Attorney Joe Early for our basketball awards ceremony Sunday at 1:00 p.m.

We thank all of our organizers, directors, coaches, players and parents for another outstanding year.

Someone said recently that to play in the St. Peter's basketball program is a rite of passage in the city of Worcester.

This Monday is our penance service for the SPRED program.

We thank Fr. Araque and all who organized our immigration meeting this past Saturday. We thank all the officials who attended. We thank all of the people who spoke up.

It was a great example of how government can help the people. It also pointed out the presence of the Catholic Church in the lives of our most vulnerable people. People feel safe in the Church.

Every Friday we have the Stations of the Cross at St. Andrew's

Every Saturday we are sharing Bishop Barron's video on the Church.

So many activities in the holy season of lent.

The Partners in Charity Appeal is beginning to happen. It's our collective almsgiving to insure that the works of the church continue.

The readings talk of practical realities that affect our daily life.

Moses tells the people in the name of God to keep the Ten Commandments which I describe as the basic standard of human interaction.

Without them we don't have civilization. Alas.

Stressed in this reading is the keeping holy of the Sabbath day. We all need a day of rest, a day of prayer.

Even God rested on the seventh day.

St. Paul reminds us that the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

It's important to reflect on this and more importantly to live it.

In the gospel Jesus drives the money changers out of the temple. We must always keep the house of the Lord pure and holy.

We are the Church. And the temple of the Lord. The Church is as well.

All must be delivered from evil and negativism.

We are to become holy as God is holy.

Don't miss lent. It is happening now.

In Christ,
Monsignor Francis Scollen
