Letter from the Pastor

We enter our holiest of weeks. We remember the events of Jesus’ story that brought us life. On Palm Sunday we commemorate Jesus’ triumph into Jerusalem. We also see how fickle people are. We realize that we too could be part of a crowd mentality. We have to think for ourselves.

On Holy Thursday we honor the reality of the Holy Eucharist, this is the manner that Jesus chose to be with us always. “Do this in memory of me.” We find Jesus in the Holy Eucharist in Church at mass. This is why it’s so important that we gather to pray together and become the Church.

At the event Jesus gets up and washes the feet of His disciples. It’s the example of how all of us should live our life—in service of one another.

On Good Friday we face death. It is not easy but essential to face death. Some are called to give up their lives in witness as Jesus did. Life is full of darkness and struggle.

We realize that on Holy Saturday darkness covers the earth and thick clouds the people. We await new life in abundance. The ceremonies are somewhat muted but beautiful nonetheless. Come and pray together.

The reading of the Passion on Palm Sunday are accompanied by the call to non-violence and the need to become one with one another.

Is anything more needed? We have to overcome violence in all of it’s ugly forms and we need to recognize that we are in this together.

Come together and go forth to give it a chance

In Christ
Monsignor Francis Scollen
