

Letter from the Pastor

Dear Family in Christ,
Participating at Mass and celebrating with others the gift of the living Christ should bring peace, comfort and renewal to our souls. That is one of the reasons why I avoid extensive references to the ‘woes of society’. They are too many and they take away our peace. That is why I rather just say... We NEED to pray for our country! I encourage you in your personal prayer to pray for the conversion of those in positions of power to have a heart like Jesus, to see every person as a child of God. Even on the cross, Jesus treated with compassion the criminal crucified next to Him and those who crucified Him!
In the name of Christ let us be compassionate, let us be holy!

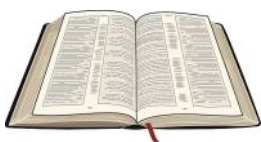

In Christ,
Fr. José

P.S. Please do not forget to provide your feedback on the following questions: What are some of the spiritual and pastoral needs that you and/or members of your family need? How can we as a church community can respond to them? The response you can send by email at pastorstpeterw@gmail.com or hand deliver when you see me. Please write your name and some way of contacting you in case I have questions.
