Dear Family in Christ,
What a joy to be baptized! What a gift to know that we are God’s children and therefore sharers of His gifts and blessings! So why do some of us forget that we are God’s sons & daughters? It is no different than our blood family dynamics. We can go through stages of being cold or es- tranged from family, and sometimes we do the same with God. The Good News is that He is right there, always ready to welcome us back! May God’s love for us be our strength this week! Be holy!
In Christ,
Fr. José
P.S. Update on the bathrooms at St. Andrew... the work began and is still as scheduled. I will just leave you with the image to the right...

The Ultimate Guide to Catholic Baptism
By Shelby Mayer

What Is Baptism?
Baptism serves as the first sacrament one receives when entering the Catholic Faith. It is a sacrament of Initiation (which you can only receive one time), meaning once you received it, you officially enter into the body of Christ, the Catholic Church. The recipient receives justifying and sanctifying grace when baptized, and the Holy Spirit begins to dwell within them.
Every sacrament requires two things, form and matter. The form of the sacrament is the words that are spoken and the matter is the physical substance used during the sacrament. For example, for baptism, the form is the baptismal formula, “I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” The matter is the water poured over the head of the recipient. Traditionally, the one being baptized has water poured over them or is fully emerged in water three times.
What It Does
1) It forgives all sins that were committed before baptism including original, mortal, and venial sin.
2) It makes the baptized a new creature.
3) It turns the baptized into a newly adopted son or daughter of God and a member of the Church.
4) It brings them to share in the royal priesthood of Christ. (1 Peter 2:9)
5) It leaves a spiritual mark (or character) of belonging to Christ on the soul of the baptized.

Parents or Guardians
Parents (or guardians) take on the responsibility for raising the child Catholic when they ask for baptism. They are the ones responding to the baptismal promises on behalf of the child. When asking for a Catholic baptism, the parents or guardians must be able to say with confidence that the child will be brought up within the Faith. This includes taking the child to Mass, teaching them the Faith, praying with and for them, and making sure they receive the sacraments including reconciliation, first Communion, and confirmation. The role of the parents is a crucial aspect of any infant baptism, and must not be taken lightly.
Godparents
The role of the chosen godparents is twofold. First and foremost, they are to act as a source of prayer and example for the child being baptized. Secondly, they are expected to assist in the formation of the child’s faith throughout their life, and, if needed, are available to raise the child in the Faith if the parents cannot. This being said, the faith of the godparents is an extremely important factor in fulfilling the baptismal promise of being raised in the Catholic Faith.
