This Week's Liturgical Readings

MAY 22 – 6th Sunday of Easter

- 1) Acts 15:1-2, 22-29
- 2) Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23
- 3) John 14:23-29

FOCUS: As our Easter journey continues, may the promise of the Holy Spirit give us hope and strength

Our Gospel brings us back to the Last Supper. Knowing His disciples will need encouragement for the events that lie ahead, Jesus grants them the gift of peace and the promise of the Spirit. We also need those gifts as we strive to live the Gospel life and be faithful to Christ.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The early Church – under the guidance of the Holy Spirit – debates whether the Gentiles should be forced to abide by Jewish ways and customs. John describes a stunning vision of the holy city Jerusalem with its walls, gates, inscriptions, and the glory of God giving it light. In the Gospel, Jesus grants His disciples the gift of peace and the promise of the Spirit, who will teach and remind them of all he taught them.

MONTH OF MAY – MONTH OF MARY

Many of us are in the habit of praying the rosary daily or at least occasionally, especially during the months of May and October. Pope Francis said: "Contemplating the face of Christ with the heart of Mary our mother, will make us more united as a spiritual family and will help us overcome this time of trial." (the pandemic, the war in Ukraine, etc.) I join Pope Francis, fervently asking you to recite the rosary and other "Marian Prayers" during this month of May. We can pray individually or as a family at home, wherever and at whatever time is convenient. Fr. Brian and the Pastoral Team
